Rev. Clinton Swengel Stays Here

3 Methodist Pastors Returned to County

Rev. Clinton P. Swengel will continue as the pastor of Grace Methodist Church here for another year in accordance with the assignments made at the annual Ohio Methodist Conference last week at Lakeside.

He was one of three Methodist ministers in Fayette County not transferred.

Dr. Edwin H. Dickey was reappointed superintendent of the Wilmington district, which includes most of the churches in the county—the exceptions are the church at Bloomingburg and those of the Good Hope circuit.

The other two churches that are to continue next year with their present ministers are at Milledgeville, where Rev. George R. Groh is the pastor and at Jeffersonville where Rev. Norman Newman is the pastor.

Rev. Groh was ordained at the conference.

Rev. Swengel will be starting his fourth year as the pastor of Grace Church.

Rev. Eugene E. Frazer of the Good Hope parish was assigned to the East View Church in Columbus, but no appointment of his successor at Good Hope was announced with the other list of assignments issued by Bishop Hazen G. Werner, of the Ohio area of the church.

Rev. H. H. Ricketts was transferred from Derby to the Bloomingburg church and Rev. Lester Taylor of Bloomingburg was assigned to the Kingston church.

Rev. Marvin Schamaun was transferred from the Washington C. H. Circuit to New Vienna and William S. Peilly, a divinity student from the United Seminary in Dayton is to be the Washington C. H. Circuit pastor.

Rev. Joseph K. Price was moved from the New Holland Church to Anna and Rev. Glenn Robinson of Anna, will be stationed at New Holland.

Rev. Roy Vandegriff was returned to the Greenfield church and Rev. C. A. Arthur remains at Leesburg.

As usual many pastoral changes

Girl, 14, Slays Man She Thought Menaced Her Dad

WHITESBURG, Ky. (AP)—A 14-year-old girl, firing a rifle from the doorway of her rural home last night, shot and killed a man who, she said, "was coming up the holler to shoot my daddy."

Sheriff Robert Collins said today Ella Sexton was charged with murder after Hobart Combs, about 35, was killed at the Sexton home.

The shot, fired from a .22 caliber rifle at dusk, hit Combs in the left shoulder and ranged down to the region of his heart.

A few hours before the fatal shooting, the sheriff said, Combs and the girl's father, Troy Sexton, exchanged several bullets as the result of an argument over three 50-cent pieces.

Sheriff Collins said Combs and an unidentified man left the Sexton home after the first shooting, but returned just before dark. That was when the girl, fearful of her father's life, fired.

A variance in U. S. Geological Survey figures for Washington C. H., has led to some confusion as to the official elevation above sea level here.

One U. S. Geological Survey map, issued in 1948 shows the official elevation here as 910 feet, but earlier topographical maps show the elevation to be 979.9 feet at a bench mark in the window in the south corner of the Court House.

Checking with County Engineer Charles Wagner, he came up with a sizeable book giving elevations throughout Ohio. It is an Ohio Topographical Survey by Sherman and the elevation here is listed as 979.9 feet above sea level.

Those who have set barometers by any other elevation, can adjust their instruments accordingly, but must not forget that the elevation varies around 250 feet in the county.

The bench mark at the Court House here has been all but obliterated by chunks of the metal having been pried off.

All figures on it have been removed.

were made in every district in the conference.

Pastoral assignments are effective immediately and for those who were transferred, this will be a busy week.

Rev. Schamaun, who received his bachelor of divinity from the Hanna Divinity School at Wittenberg College only about a month ago, and his family are packing up now to move to New Vienna, where he is to deliver his first sermon next Sunday. He said he now has a master of sacred theology degree as his objective and that he hopes to enter clinical training in the Miami Valley Hospital in the near future.

Neither Rev. Frazer nor Rev. Taylor were immediately available for comment on their transfers, but it has been learned from laymen at the conference that a pastor for the Good Hope parish's four churches will be appointed in the very near future by Dr. Carl Hickey, superintendent of the Chillicothe district. Bloomingburg also is in the Chillicothe district, but a new minister was assigned to the church there.

Two Hurt When Driver Sleeps

Sheriff Investigates Pair Of Accidents

Donald Coy, 38, and Donald Bailey, both of Dayton, sustained severe cuts about the head, bruises and other injuries at 6 A. M. Sunday, when Coy fell asleep and the car he was driving left the road. The car was demolished on the concrete end of a culvert on the Chillicothe Road eight miles south-east of Washington C. H.

Sheriff Orland Hays investigated the accident and found the car had started leaving the road 132 feet from the culvert. The car was owned by Bailey.

Both men were taken to Memorial Hospital in the Gerstner ambulance.

Sheriff Hays also investigated an accident on the CCC Highway, west, along the Bea-Mar Farm six miles west of Washington C. H., where Herschel McCormick, Luster, Mo., had lost control of his car and it dropped into one of the 18-inch excavations where the road is being widened, took the ditch and tore down four rods of Bea-Mar fence.

McCormick carried insurance and arranged to pay for the damage. His car was in running order so he continued on his way.

McCormick said he was looking for a motel when he drove off the road.

In a third accident, near Sabina, investigated by the highway patrol, Roy Weiser of Sabina, sustained severe lacerations and was treated at Memorial Hospital.

Ohio Accidents Claim 21 Lives

COLUMBUS, (AP)—Four accidents which took two lives each contributed heavily to a death toll of 13 on Ohio roads from 6 p. m. Friday through last midnight.

Accidents involving two deaths took place in Columbus and near Granville on Saturday and in the vicinities of Toledo and Steubenville yesterday.

Drownings, a shooting and two cases of children choking swelled the states' weekend accidental death list to 21.

Man Cuffs Boy; Parents Thankful

READING, Pa. (AP)—A powerful smack by a diesel locomotive brakeman sent two-year-old Billy Matson sprawling yesterday and the child's parents expressed gratitude.

Bill was walking along the tracks of the Reading Railroad in the path of a 40-car freight train, which hadn't enough time to brake.

Brakeman Aloysius A. Russell, 26, saw the boy from his seat in the cab of the locomotive. He raced up the catwalk on the outside of the engine and reached down and cuffed the boy clear of the train. Injuries were minor.

GEORGE ZOOKOVA, 3, and his brother, Alexander, 5, are happy to be out of Red China and in Hong Kong. They arrived with their mother, Mrs. W. Zookovka, a stateless Russian woman who was born in Harbin, Manchuria, and lived in Shanghai for 14 years. The boys said "American beat us in Shanghai," but when reminded there are no Americans there, they replied "They (the Reds) told us so."

Stevenson Urges Bargaining In Coming Big Four Parley

OBERLIN (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson urged today that the forthcoming "conference at the summit" be approached with an attitude of bargaining.

The former Democratic presidential candidate, in a speech prepared for commencement exercises at Oberlin College, said "our role is to keep our hopes high but our heads clear."

He said every suggestion must be considered "honestly and dispassionately," and that the United States should look for "bases of agreement and be willing to take some reasonable chances."

"To want peace is to want compromise," he said. "It is not to demand perfection but to be willing to accept something less, perhaps much less, than perfection, but better than the alternative which is a sharpening and prolonging of ugly, dangerous tensions."

The talks among the heads of the governments of the United States, Russia, France and England are expected to take place in Geneva around the end of July.

STEVENS said the "effectiveness of this nation's participation depends not in any sense upon the President alone."

"If we the people are uncompromising," he said, "if we equate negotiation with appeasement, if we regard every Soviet proposal as a trick and a trap, if we think that what is advantageous for one is automatically disadvantageous for the other, then we the people will have ruled out bargaining."

"Not even the President can negotiate if we tie his hands."

"And we shall have to learn that diplomacy by hindsight is not good. We shall have to learn not to denounce our representatives as traitors or suspicious characters if anything goes wrong in the future."

"Trading used to be considered a Yankee talent and I think it still is, if we don't put our traders in a strait jacket or scare them stiff in advance."

4 Girls Missing From State School

DELAWARE (AP)—Authorities pressed their search today for four girls who escaped from the Girls' Industrial School here.

Four other girls who fled the institution early yesterday were captured nine hours later.

State highway patrolman L. C. Farnsworth said the girls, all between 15 and 17, left the school in two groups.

The second group of four girls fled the institution minutes after the first four. There was no trace of the second group.

Boy Swallows Electric Fuse

IRVING, Tex. (AP)—The afternoon nap of Lance Morrison, 5, was short-circuited Sunday when he swallowed an electric fuse while resting in bed. His parents rushed him to a hospital. Doctors X-rayed him and decided the inch-long, pencil-sized fuse would do little harm. It wasn't known how Lance got the fuse.

15,000 Government Aides To Take Part In Evacuation

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower goes back to war on a simulated basis Wednesday to lead 15,000 top-bracket government officials and employees in an unprecedented partial evacuation of the national capital.

With two hours warning at best, atom or hydrogen weapons supposedly will blast Washington and 48 other selected target cities in the nation, along with six more in Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico and the Canal Zone.

Sirens shortly after noon Wednesday will signal the start of Operation Alert 1955, to test government action as well as civil defense plans around the nation.

Eisenhower, the Cabinet, military chiefs and other key leaders will scramble into cars, planes and buses and head for secret retreats to start running the government on a war crisis basis. Secretary of Defense Wilson will use a helicopter.

Then, for three days, the carefully picked core of essential people from 31 federal departments and agencies will operate from secret relocation sites spread out as far as 300 miles northwest, west and southwest of Washington.

They will handle some of the normal routine of government. But mainly they will take on the burden of solving the vast maze of problems that would descend on them in the first 30 days of a nuclear war.

Some of the evacuated workers will live in hotels, motels and boarding houses for the three-day

Argentine Cops Arrest 430 In Religious Feud

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—Police raided the palace of Argentina's Roman Catholic primate early today and arrested 430 men who had taken refuge there after rioting between Roman Catholics and backers of President Juan D. Peron in the street outside.

Worshippers were caught inside the adjacent Metropolitan Cathedral by the fighting late yesterday in the Plaza de Mayo. Police finally restored order with tear gas and chemical foam.

Many then moved into the palace through a connecting doorway and barricaded the doors with benches, desks and chairs.

The primate, Santiago Luis Cardinal Copello, 75, was absent. He was reported ill and staying at his suburban San Isidro home. But many priests were on hand when the police appeared.

With the officers was Federal Judge Carlos A. Gentile who ordered all the women released. He set up an improvised office within the palace to take identification of the prisoners. The men were packed into police wagons and carted off to central police headquarters.

THE PRIESTS were permitted to remain in the palace.

A police communique said those arrested were suspected of starting rumors the cathedral had been burned. The police said the rumors were intended to produce a disturbance. They said they found pistols in a car parked nearby.

As the government cracked down on the church partisans, President Juan Peron marshaled his forces today for support in his bitter feud with the nation's pre-dominant church.

It was Argentina's gravest political crisis in two years.

At least eight persons were injured by flying stones last night when bands shouting "Long Live Peron! Down with the pope!" clashed in the Central Plaza with Roman Catholics chanting "Long Live Christ the King."

The turmoil raised tension to its highest pitch since the church-state dispute broke out seven months ago after Peron's charge that church elements were plotting to undermine his regime. Church officials have denied the charge.

The running dispute came to a head Saturday night when church followers held a Corpus Christi parade in Buenos Aires streets despite a government ban. The government charged the Roman Catholic clergy incited the marchers to burn the Argentine flag, stone newspaper offices and public buildings and attack several foreign embassies.

40-Year-Old Bill Paid To Hospital

CHICAGO (AP)—A former hospital patient has paid a $21 bill and added $79 for his oversight of the bill he got 40 years ago.

Sister Mary de Chanet, administrator of St. Mary of Nazareth Hospital said the one-time patient, John Rola, about 63, brought the bill to the hospital, saying he had found it among some old papers. He said it was for 21 days' hospitalization after a motorcycle accident in 1915 but he remained in the hospital two months.

Murder Hearing Is Delayed Again

MCCONNELSVILLE (AP)—A fourth postponement was announced today in resumption of a first-degree murder trial because of the illness of Common Pleas Judge Carlos Reicker.

The trial of Mrs. Frances Sloan, accused of slaying her 16-year-old nephew, Kenneth Strohl, now is scheduled to resume June 20. The trial opened May 23, then was recessed because of the judge.

test. But 600 will occupy floorless tents without plumbing.

Congress and the courts aren't taking part. All 227,000 Washington employees of the executive branch of government, however, will evacuate their offices on a token basis.

In Operation Alert, the assumption is that the target cities will be smashed by nuclear weapons with the power of 20,000 to five millions tons of TNT. Guided missiles with atomic warheads, from Russian bases, supposedly will strike Alaska and submarines will launch nuclear destruction on Hawaii, Puerto Rico and Panama.

New York, Chicago, Los Angeles and points in between will be "bombed." Cities that produce planes, munitions, cars, chemicals, power, electronics equipment, steel, aluminum, ships, machine tools and other important war goods are on the target list.

With industry and business "shattered" and millions of "casualties and refugees," Eisenhower and the other top-level officials will take on the theoretical job of retaliation and recovery.

Some of the results will be made public through an emergency press center at one relocation center. For security reasons, others will not.

Gallipolis Rapped In State Lawsuit

COLUMBUS (AP)—Atty. Gen. C. William O'Neill today filed suit against the city of Gallipolis for violating water pollution laws.

O'Neill, in an affidavit filed in Gallia County common pleas court, asserted the city since Feb. 15, had discharged sewage and industrial waste in the Ohio River and Chickamauga Creek.

The affidavit said this release of waste was done without a permit of the Ohio Water Pollution Control Board and in violation of the state pollution control law.

27 Ladybirds Off To Havana

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP)—Twenty-seven women pilots, the survivors of a starting field of 33, took off from this southernmost U. S. city today on the last lap of the Washington-to-Havana air race.

Bad weather had plagued the ladybirds since they flew into Florida Friday and Saturday and for a time their planes were scattered at airports all the way from Charleston, S. C., to Key West.

Good flying conditions were reported over the 90-mile stretch of water between here and Havana.

Dutch Ship Brings Beer, Ham To Ohio

CLEVELAND (AP)—A trim, new Dutch ship brought 104 tons of beer and 23 tons of canned ham to Cleveland yesterday on its maiden voyage.

The Prins Willem II of the Orange Line will continue to Toledo, Detroit, Green Bay, Milwaukee and Chicago before returning to Holland with American manufactured products and food.

rather than juries.

Said Hannah and Clayman in their letter:

"We feel that the right to trial by jury has had an important tendency to keep the administration of workmen's compensation within the spirit and original intent of the law."

Declaring Ohio employers "have enjoyed bargain rates these last two years" in their contributions to the compensation fund, the letter added:

"Ohio employers have enjoyed a marvelous competitive position in the field of workmen's compensation. They have enjoyed and still enjoy one of the lowest contribution rates in the entire country. They can afford to pay much more to the victims of accidents and diseases on the job. We can afford to have the very best workmen's compensation law in the entire United States."

Guaranteed Pay Plan Given Nod By Big Company

Chrysler Listed Next By UAW Chieftain As Target For Demands

DETROIT (AP)—The CIO United Auto Workers today nailed down at General Motors Corp. the same guaranteed wage plan it won a week ago from Ford.

Walter Reuther, UAW president, thus firmly established the controversial employer-paid supplemental unemployment benefit system in the auto industry, an important beachhead from which he hopes to launch it into other industries.

In fact, Reuther said today his union will make a guaranteed annual wage plan its No. 1 demand on Chrysler Corp.

"We'll settle that at the bargaining table," Reuther said in reference to the "little three."

The UAW-Chrysler contract expires Aug. 31, with bargaining scheduled to begin June 30.

THE THREE-YEAR General Motors agreement was hammered out in a predawn settlement after more than 37 hours of bargaining broken only by brief recesses.

The GM pact closely followed the recent Ford Motor Co. contract in nearly every respect. It calls for improvements in pay, pensions, vacations and holidays similar to those worked out at Ford.

In addition, it grants the UAW a full union shop for the first time, meaning that GM's relatively few nonunion workers must now join the union to keep their jobs.

The contract covers 375,000 wage earners represented by the UAW. The present pay scale of hourly workers is $2.10 an hour. The pay of skilled workers ranges upwards from an approximate base of $2.50 an hour.

An additional 35,000 GM employees represented by the CIO International Union of Electrical Workers were given the same economic benefits under an agreement reached an hour after the UAW settlement was announced. The Electrical Workers had threatened to join the auto workers in any strike action.

Reuther called the GM settlement "an extremely significant and far-reaching contract" costing the corporation $600 million over the three-year period. Reuther said it was worth better than 20 cents an hour per employee, like the Ford contract. GM President Harlow H. Curtis said it assured the vast GM auto empire of three more years of labor peace.

GM LIKE FORD agreed to guarantee laid-off workers 60 to 65 per cent of regular take-home pay including state unemployment compensation benefits, for a maximum of 26 weeks. GM will contribute 5 cents an hour per worker toward a $150 million trust to finance the plan over the next three years.

GM Vice President Harry W. Anderson, top company negotiator, said he was "happy to report that many of the five, progressive features of the first proposal we made to the UAW-CIO four weeks ago have been incorporated in this new agreement."

Among these he listed:

Guaranteed pay raises of 6 to 8 cents an hour for all employees in each of the next three years. An extra raise of at least 6 cents an hour for skilled workers.

Pension plan improvements to boost maximum pensions to more than $250 a month, including social security.

Elimination or reduction of wage inequities for 90,000 employees. An extra half week vacation for employees with 10 years or more service.

One extra paid holiday a year. Improvements in the hospital-medical-insurance plan.

Other portions of the original GM settlement proposal rejected by the UAW were not among the settlement terms. These included an opportunity for employees to buy company stock at half price, an interest-free loan plan for laid-off workers an severance pay.

Progress Made On County Road Improvements

Commissions Told
By County Engineer
Of Work Completed

Progress in improvements in connection with the program set up for Fayette County highways was reported by County Engineer Charles Wagner to the county commissioners at their regular meeting Monday morning at the Court House.

The commissioners have been greatly interested in setting up a program of road work in this county during the past two years with special attention directed toward making the dollars allotted to the county highway fund, go as far as possible consistent with types of improvement which will stand the wear and tear of heavy traffic under all weather conditions.

THE COUNTY ROAD improvements recently completed are: the Bloomington-New Holland road in Marion Township for a distance of 4.35 miles; the Pleasant View road, Jefferson Township, 3.11 miles; Boyd road in Wayne Township, 2.43 miles, also the Cisco road in the same township, .91 of a mile; the Capps road in Perry Township, 2.80 miles.

This represents a total of 13.60 miles of recent improvements done at a total cost of $32,000. For these five roads.

It also was reported that the grading on the Staubus road and the Creamer road in Jefferson Township is practically completed. The approaches to the DT&I Railroad on the Staubus Road have been filled raising the roadway level several feet in order to give the traveling public a better view of any approaching trains.

THE MEYERS road in Paint and Madison Townships, which is undergoing grading, will be completed in a short time.

All three of these newly graded roads also will receive surface treatment by an application of asphalt as soon as the weather permits, it was said.

There was no other business before the county commissioners at Monday's meeting except approval of bills and discussion of other proposed minor road improvements.

Dr. Salk Sees Better Polio Vaccine Plan

WASHINGTON (AP)—Dr. Jonas E. Salk says the U.S. Public Health Service's new manufacturing standards for his polio vaccine "will preclude deviation from the procedures originally intended."

Earlier troubles with some commercial lots of the vaccine may have developed, he said, "because the phrasing of the minimum government requirements allowed for differing interpretations."

Salk expressed these views in a telegram to Surgeon General Leonard A. Scheele made public early today in Pittsburgh. He did not directly criticize the health service, but he indicated that he disagrees with some sections of its report on the entire polio vaccine program.

"I recognize that this represents your views and those of your staff," Salk said, adding there are points both "wherein I concur and wherein I do not."

The health service report, released last week, said that troubles developed when production of the vaccine was shifted from the laboratory to a full-scale commercial operation.

In a statement that some have viewed as critical of Dr. Salk's theories, the report said that "the process of inactivation (which renders the polio virus in the vaccine harmless) did not always follow the predicted course."

Salk did not go into any detail

Famous Trichologist Tells Truth About Saving
And Improving Hair

This new method of home treatment for saving growing thicker hair will be demonstrated in Washington C. H., Ohio Thursday only, June 16, 1955.

These private individual demonstrations will be held at the Washington Hotel on Thursday only, June 16, 2 P. M. to 9 P. M.

OKLAHOMA CITY—June 13—In an interview here today Dr. Russell Collins, internationally famous trichologist and director of the Collins Hair and Scalp Experts, Inc., said, "There are 18 different scalp disorders that cause most men and women to lose hair. Using common sense, a person must realize no one tonic or so called cure-all could correct all the disorders," he explained.

GUARANTEED
"The Collins firm, recognizing that most people are skeptical of claims that hair can be grown on balding heads, offers a guarantee," Collins said.

Once a person avails themselves to the Collins treatment his skepticism immediately disappears. To insure this, we offer this guarantee. "If you are not completely satisfied with your hair progress in the very first 30 days your money will be returned."

HOPELESS CASES DISCOURAGED
First the Collins specialists are quick to tell hopeless cases that they cannot be helped. But the "hopeless" cases are few. Only if a man is completely, shiny bald is he in this lost category.

If there is fuzz, no matter how light, thin, or colorless, the Collins firm can perform wonders.

Everyone is given a complete, private examination to determine the condition of his scalp, and cause for his hair trouble.

FREE EXAMINATIONS
This examination is very thorough and highly technical. It requires 20 to 30 minutes. There is no charge for this examination and no appointment is necessary. After the examination he is told the required length of treatment and how much it will cost.

After starting treatment, he makes regular reports to the Collins firm in Oklahoma City, and a trichologist will return to check his progress periodically.

To spread the opportunity of normal, healthy hair to the thousands who are desperately looking for help, the Collins firm is sending specialists to various cities throughout the United States to conduct examinations and start home treatment.

NO CURE-ALL
"We have no cure-all for slick, shiny baldness," Collins emphasizes. "If there is fuzz, the root is still capable of creating hair and we can perform what seems to be a miracle."

There is one thing Collins wants to be certain every man and woman knows. If a recession appears at the temples or a spot begins to show up on the crown of the head, there is something wrong and it should be given immediate attention.

HAIR FOR LIFETIME
"If clients follow our directions during treatment, and after they finish the course, there is no reason why they will not have hair all the rest of their lives," Collins said. "Our firm is definitely behind this treatment, it all depends on the individual client's faithful observation of a few simple rules."

HOW'S YOUR HAIR?
If it worries you call Trichologist Charles Beeson at the Washington Hotel in Washington C. H., Ohio on Thursday only, June 16, 2 P. M. to 9 P. M. The public is invited. You do not need an appointment. The examination is private and you will not be embarrassed or obligated in any way.

"Mary Haworth's Mail"

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: I would like to know just what is a nagging wife? I mean, what is your definition?

I have been accused by my husband of being a nagging wife lately. That is something I don't want to be; and I didn't think I was. That's why I would like a good definition of the term, so that I can correct the condition if it exists. Thank you for helping me better my ways—if I should.

Early Man's Camps Found In Nevada

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Some 23,800 years before the era of the resort hotel, the hemisphere's earliest-known man gambled for his life among the mammoths near what is now Las Vegas, Nev.

M. R. Harrington, curator of Southwest Museum in Los Angeles, says that the early man's campsites have been discovered in the same strata with the bones of a mammoth, forerunner of the elephant.

He said that a recent expedition to the ancient campsite also uncovered the bones of a camel that had been dismembered, cooked and eaten by men. The bones had been split with crude stone hatchets found at the scene.

"We were hoping to find human bones," Harrington said. "What the ancient dwellers there did with their dead I don't know."

The traces of early life were tested by the "Carbon 14" method, which set their age at 23,800 years, Harrington said. The oldest previous indication of human life in the hemisphere (set at 11,000 years) was found among charcoal deposits near Winnemucca, Nev.

The carbon test measures the amount of carbon 14, a radio-active isotope of carbon, remaining in an object. The radioactivity weathers away at a precisely known rate, so scientists can measure the amount left over and thus estimate the relic's age.

There have been only four total eclipses of the sun lasting more than seven minutes during the 20th century.

La Russell Is All Enthused About Adoption Foundation

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Jane Russell continues to confound the type casters by refusing to live up to her film siren reputation offscreen.

La Russell has never been loquacious about her movie career. But get her started on a topic dear to her heart like WAIF and she'll talk from now until Tuesday. The initials stand for Women's Adoption International Fund.

"The organization was set up three years ago," explained Jane, one of its leaders. "There seemed to be a real need for a group which could attend to one of the world's most pressing human problems. That is: that there are areas in the world where people want children, and there are other areas where children need parents."

"The purpose of WAIF is to help these two groups get together." "One of our principle problems is adoption laws," she explained. "Most of them were enacted merely as a protection against white slavery. There are 33 different adoption laws in this country, and many of them are pretty poor. We hope all of the states will adopt a standard, up-to-date code for adoptions."

"Finding parents is no problem—we have 100 prospective parents for every available child," she remarked.

"What we need is money to promote our work. We get some contributions at WAIF, but a cause like this requires a personal approach."

Jane said she became interested in adoption matters when she encountered difficulty adopting children herself. She and Bob Waterfield now have a daughter, Tracy, 4, adopted in this country, and Tommy, 5, from a British couple who felt he would have more advantages in this country.

The actress added that the main

Life And Growth Of Calf Amazing

Livestock farmers in the neighborhood have been watching with considerable astonishment the life and growth of a tiny calf a Jersey cow gave birth to a little more than two weeks ago.

The cow is owned by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cox who live in Jeffersonville. The sire of the calf is a black Angus.

When the calf was born it weighed not quite 16 pounds, was only 21 inches tall and 25 inches long. Despite its diminutive size at birth, it is coming along nicely now and has gained around 9 pounds.

Dr. R. D. Little is maintaining a sort of scientific watch over the little fellow: so is Bud Hartman, who sells the feed to the Coxes for mother and child.

Hartman said Dr. Little told him that "it is very unusual" for a calf so small to survive. He guessed the average weight of a newborn calf would be "around 50 to 70 pounds." There was no indication that it was born prematurely.

Memories

By JACOB MILLER

The early pioneer was prone to attribute bad luck to so-called witches. For instance, if his horse or cow became sick, he would think some one in the community was bewitching the animal. One of the treatments was to shoot a silver bullet into the animal which the owner thought would kill the witch, which inhabited the animal, and then the animal would get well. It was also believed that these witches were able to fly through the air on a broomhandle, and to do this, they sold themselves to Satan.

One of the great pasts of the pioneer was roving bands of gypsies, who would camp near some settlement and practice their art of theft and pilfering on the kindly natives, buying what they could not steal with counterfeit money. By the time the resident discovered the fraud, the gypsies were far away.

Itinerant preachers, who would appear from time to time, seemed filled with burning zeal, to bring Christ into the homes; there was the schoolteacher also, who boarded around the neighborhood, and the children had to go from long distances to the school to learn the three R's. Some of the pioneer children became famous in after-years in their chosen fields of endeavor.

Even now, most of our great leaders of today were born in lowly surroundings. Our colleges have large enrollments of farm boys and girls studying the up-to-date modes of agriculture.

Foreign rulers and high officials from all parts of the world come to study our methods of husbandry and to take home to their country, very expensive, pedigreed animals to improve their own herds.

I attribute the leadership of our nation as being due to that little clause in the constitution, which says that, "A man can worship God according to the dictates of his own conscience".

Suppose Spain or France had been the dominant power in former days instead of England. What a different nation our own might have become. I think God is using this nation as a guide for the world. I once heard a saloon-keeper say, "This would be a terrible town, if we had no churches".

"Inconsistency, thou art a jewel".

The UN's Tenth Anniversary This Month

This year, June 25, the tenth anniversary of the historic event of the signing of the charter of the United Nations, will be observed with fitting ceremonies in San Francisco where the United Nations was officially founded.

President Eisenhower is scheduled to deliver an opening address to the UN delegates, marking the occasion one of international importance.

The UN has come in for a lot of criticism from those who believe it has not done an aggressive enough job in stopping or cleaning up controversies which held the threat of war which could again become world-wide.

This last ten year period has been one of frustration and impatience with the shortcomings of the UN. Its use, on many occasions, by the Communists as a propaganda forum, has seemed to be far too frequent.

Nevertheless, out of the U.N. has come a somewhat better understanding by many nations of the world, of America's basic position. That much must be recognized by all fair-minded people. We have made considerable headway in many quarters by our example of the progress of a Free Republic.

As an example our relationship with the Philippine Islands has, by no means, been lost upon those countries seeking their own independence from Colonialism. The Bandung Conference is reported to have witnessed a remarkable demonstration of American friendship due to the broadened understanding of our role in world affairs.

Many of us who have been somewhat disappointed in what we think we see in UN weaknesses, may not know all the facts. It is quite possible that Russia has learned that her maneuvering toward world control by Communism, is now more clearly seen by many nations which she hoped to win over.

A great many people who have studied the situation in world-wide affairs, are inclined to the view that delegates to the U.N. cannot fail to be impressed by what they see, and sense, in the United States. Those impressions are carried back in an influential way to their own countries.

For all its weaknesses, the UN still holds a great possibility as being the longest step toward international cooperation which has yet been taken in mankind's history.

Billy--A Mixed-Up Kid?

By Hal Boyle

The West had its juvenile delinquents, too.

The most famous was William H. Bonney, better known as "Billy the Kid."

Historians still argue over the real character and actual criminal record of this buck-toothed frontier lad.

Legend has it that in his brief 21 years he killed 21 men, "not counting Indians and Mexicans." But that is only legend.

Was Billy, a Brooklyn tenement product left fatherless at three, a born mobster with murder in his heart? Or was he just a victim of his wild environment, a crazy mixed-up kid?

Nearly 75 years after his death the souvenirs of his controversial career have made him one of New Mexico's greatest tourist draws.

Nobody had heard much about Billy until the opening of the celebrated "Lincoln County War," which has since inspired countless Hollywood horse operas.

The war was a struggle for economic and political power between two rival factions of frontier rangers, general storekeepers and politicians.

It began Feb. 18, 1878, when a posse, deputized to serve legal papers on John Tunstall, an English-born rancher, met him on a road and, instead of the papers, served him two bullets.

Billy, who had been befriended by Tunstall, joined the slain rancher's other hired hands in seeking revenge.

Before the war ended battles between the two factions left 14 men dead in this small town alone.

Billy was promised a full pardon by territorial Governor Lew Wallace, and surrendered. But he became suspicious of the situation and rode away unhindered.

Later, brought to trial for a subsequent slaying and sentenced to hang, the Kid recalled the earlier bargain with Gov. Wallace and complained he was being given a raw deal. When Wallace pointed out that his promise had been given at a different time for a different crime Billy killed his two guards in the courthouse jail and galloped off.

Exactly 77 days later at midnight on July 14, 1881, Sheriff Pat Garrett caught up with Billy.

Sitting in a blackened room, the sheriff ambushed Billy. He shot him above the heart as the Kid, half dressed and shoeless, stood uncertainly at the doorway and called in Spanish, "who is it? who is it?"

They buried Billy in a borrowed white shirt too big for his thin small frame, and an Indian girl put a wooden cross above his grave inscribed, "Sleep Well, Beloved."

Ford's 'Fund For The Republic'

By George Sokolsky

When the Ford Foundation gave Paul Hoffman, its president, $15,000,000 to form the Fund for the Republic, Hoffman ceased to be the head of the Ford Foundation. Similarly when Robert Hutchins left the Ford Foundation, he found a position with the Fund for the Republic. Since then the two organizations have gone their separate course, and, I understand, no love is lost between them.

In the public mind, however, the Fund for the Republic remains in some manner related to the Ford Foundation and no steps have been taken by the parent to speak of its offspring in public as some speak of it in private. If then it is suggested that Ford Foundation money is being used for political purposes and therefore subject to re-examination as to tax exemption, it is only because the Ford Foundation has avoided explaining to the public that a $15,000,000 error was made.

Meanwhile the Fund for the Republic has been antagonistic to all Congressional investigations and investigators, has teams all over the country ostensibly investigating the communists but actually seeking to discover what active anti-communists have been doing. A very complex questionnaire has been sent to firms using radio and television programs to advertise their wares, asking in the minutest detail what their policies are concerning the employment of communists or alleged communists on radio and television.

In a letter addressed to such firms, the following questions are asked:

"(1) Does your organization hold that certain political criteria should be met by artists whom you engage, i. e. would you disapprove of hiring an artist

(A) Named as a communist by a government agency?

(B) One who was an 'unfriendly witness' before a governmental investigating body?

(C) One who stood on the Fifth Amendment before such a body?

(D) One who has been listed in such private organs as 'Counterattack', 'Red Channels', 'Firing Line'?

(E) An artist who in the public mind, or at least before a goodly section of the public, is deemed 'controversial'?

(F) Any other category?

"(2) If such criteria are to be met, does your organization leave the application of them to the advertising agency and the network or do you take an active interest?

"(3) Is it your experience that the employment of 'controversial' personalities hurts the sale of products?

"(4) Are you satisfied with the way the question has been handled to date?"

The Fund for the Republic has also become engaged in the free distribution of books, pamphlets, newspaper articles, etc. One phase of political propaganda is the uninvited, unsolicited, unpaid for distribution of material on one side of a question with the object of influencing public opinion. The Fund has sent such material to clergymen, college presidents and federal judges, among others.

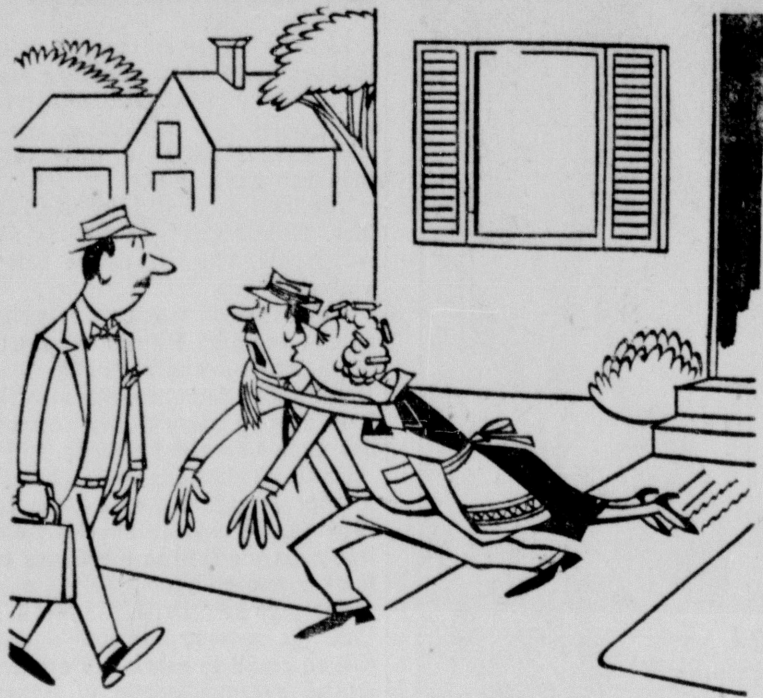

I have before me a list of such material as received by one person who has asked for none of it and resents being made its re-

ipient. As I have not read all of it, I cannot adequately comment on it, but one article widely distributed by the Fund for the Republic is "The Kept Witnesses," by Richard H. Rovere, with a subtitle that states:

"At least eighty-three people have been set up by the government in the trade of 'Professional Witnesses.' One calls it 'a racket'... three are confessed liars... and all of them are exempt from security clearance."

This article gives me the impression that the government of the United States, particularly the Department of Justice and the FBI, is engaged in a conspiracy to frame Americans by the use of false and paid witnesses. It is the most serious charge that can be made against a public official. It is deserving of a Congressional investigation, because if Rovere is correct, the security system is faulty and criminal in intent. Such an investigation could include the author of the article and the Fund for the Republic.

Baby's First Feat Learning To Smile

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN

When will my baby walk? When will he talk? When will he do this? When will he do that?

These questions, naturally, beset any new parent, but no doctor is able to predict the answers. Every baby is an individual, so there isn't much use comparing him to other children.

There are general age brackets, however, which indicate at what time a baby might be expected to do certain things. But what is probably more important than when he will do them is the sequence in which he will perform various acts.

First Sign

Generally, the first sign that a baby has gained some control over his muscles is when he lifts his chin while lying on his stomach. Sometimes this is accomplished within a few days after his birth. Next comes his first real smile, usually sometime between the age of three weeks and two months. He will probably smile upon hearing someone's voice.

Between one and a half to two months he will begin gurgling and cooing and making other sounds. Along about the same time he will begin turning his head at the sound of voices. When he is about two months he will be strong enough to lift his chest when lying on his stomach. His curiosity is becoming strong now.

Sometime between two and four months he will be able to hold his head up when you pull him into a sitting position. He will begin laughing out loud around the age of four months.

Between four and six months your tot should start reaching and grabbing for objects such as rattles and other toys. He will be able to roll all the way over between five and seven months. First, he will roll from his stomach to his back. It is a little more difficult for him to roll from his back to his stomach, but he will do that, too.

Begins Crawling

A really big accomplishment comes along about the age of six to eight months, when your baby will be able to sit up alone. By this time his back is strong enough to support him. In another month or so—between seven and nine months—he'll begin crawling. Around nine or ten months he'll pull himself into a standing position and in a very short time he'll start to walk.

While some babies can walk alone at the age of one year, most don't walk by themselves until they are about 14 or 15 months or even older. He'll probably begin talking a little about this time, too, although some babies talk long before they walk.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

F. S.: What are the symptoms of a brain tumor?

Answer: Symptoms of brain tumor depend upon the size and location of the tumor within the brain. Most symptoms of brain tumors consist of headaches, disturbance of the various sensations and sense organs, such as the eyes; at times attacks of vomiting may occur. If a tumor of the brain is suspected, immediate study by a neurologist is advisable.

WASHINGTON — Guaranteed wages and unemployment insurance are not the same. They are being pulled closer together by the auto workers' efforts to wring some kind of wage guarantee from the auto industry.

This is the main difference:

1. Unemployment insurance (hereafter called UI) is money which a state gives a worker—for a limited time and in limited amounts—when he loses his regular job.

2. The kind of guaranteed wage now in the news is money given by an employer—for a limited time and in limited amounts—when a worker is laid off.

This is what the CIO United Auto Workers had in mind when it got its first guaranteed wage contracts from Ford and General Motors.

That the guaranteed wage, when added to the UI which a laid-off worker would collect, would give him a figure closer to his regular pay than he would get from the UI alone.

Now it's up to the states to decide whether they'll give UI to a man collecting money from his employer. Some states don't permit that now.

Unemployment Insurance

All states, plus the District of Columbia, Alaska and Hawaii pay UI, collected through a tax of 3 per cent or less on employers' pay-rolls. Amounts vary from state to state and so does the length of time each state gives these benefits.

The UI payments have been averaging around $25 a week. Some states pay for no more than 16 weeks, some for as many as 26.

Before he can collect UI payments, a worker generally must meet requirements like these: almost all states require him to wait a week, without pay, before he starts collecting; he must be willing to take another job if it's suitable; he may be penalized, or get no money at all, if he's been fired for misconduct.

The Guaranteed Wage

It is of two kinds:

1. For years some companies—like Nunn-Bush, Hormel, Procter and Gamble—have had guaranteed wage plans, assuring their employees steady work or income. This is not linked to unemployment insurance.

2. The Ford agreement, first for the auto industry, is tied directly in with UI payments. This is how it works:

A man is laid off for lack of work. He can get up to $25 a week—many will get less—for as much as 26 weeks. How much he gets, up to $25, and how long he gets it depends on how long he worked for Ford and how much he earned weekly.

This company payment, when added to the UI payment he gets from the state, can, but won't necessarily add up to 65 per cent of his base take-home pay. That is, the pay he has left after federal income tax has been deducted from it.

And that guarantee of 65 per cent of take-home pay is only for four weeks. For the next 22 weeks the guarantee is for no more than 60 per cent. So even the combined Ford-UI payment will not give a jobless worker what he had earned regularly.

Raw Cabbage Juice Helps Heal Ulcers

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Six years of experience with raw cabbage juice as an ulcer treatment indicates that procedure should be tried on all such cases before resorting to surgery, says a Stanford University physician.

Three weeks on cabbage juice plus a bland diet healed most ulcers in a series of 63 cases, Dr. Garnett Cheney reported in the Stanford Medical Bulletin. Six patients with "huge" ulcers needed 56 days of treatment. Conventional treatment for ulcer with drugs usually requires six weeks or more, he added.

Only three of the 63 cases failed to show healing. Dr. Cheney said each of these had dense scar tissue in the stomach and liver damage. There were three others, not counted in the 63 cases, who had stomach cancer as well as ulcers. Their ulcers did not heal.

Raw cabbage juice is particularly rich in a substance which Dr. Cheney tentatively calls Vitamin U. It apparently helps the stomach lining to resist breakdown when under attack by natural stomach acids and other body chemicals. The substance also is present in leafy green vegetables, milk and eggs.

Treatment calls for drinking at least a quart of cabbage juice daily. Dr. Cheney obtained cabbage juice in concentrated form so that less bulk would be needed. The juice also was reduced to powder and put into capsules.

Current Vietnamese Setup Is International Problem

EDITOR'S NOTE — The United States is gambling on the future of South Viet Nam. It is taking hand, directly or indirectly, in the way that strategic area is governed. What lies ahead? What are the chances of keeping communism out? How about Premier Diem? Preston Grover went to Saigon to seek answers to these and other questions. This is the first of five articles Grover has written to illuminate the background and appraise the prospects.

By PRESTON GROVER

SAIGON, SOUTH VIET NAM (AP) — The French have lost out decisively in South Viet Nam but the task of getting them out of power gracefully has been handled so ineptly on all sides that it has become a major international problem.

Many French here recognize that they have lost out and sooner or later must turn over control fully to the Vietnamese.

The Vietnamese want the French out. The Vietnamese want to run their own country.

The Americans want the French out. Americans believe it will be easier to organize an anti-Communist defense when the French are gone.

Those are simple statements, but there the simplicity of the problem ends. National ambitions and sensibilities enter at this point to make the story both dramatic and dangerous.

Civil war is still a bare possibility in this country. Perhaps more serious is that the French and Americans have got into such a squabble over how to lead the country to independence during the next 12 months that they are risking the very independence they are trying to save.

Moreover, their squabbling endangers their relations in Europe. France came first to this country with the light touch of selfless missionaries. A few of them landed on the south coast of Viet Nam called Cochinchina. That was just after the American Revolutionary War.

By 1885 the French had gained South, the final act being a brief skirmish with the Chinese to make them give up ancient claims.

Thus began the years of French influence in Indochina which have so colored their present outlook. Indochina was one of the richest prizes any nation got in the big empire rush. It poured its wealth into France and the French put skill, enterprise and civilization into Indochina. The current language of the intellectual classes here is French. The French built railroads, bridges, highways, and opened a vast network of canals which from the air look like white ribbons lying straight and clean through the jungle.

Frenchmen came here to live. They closed the market to other nations and sold their own goods here at high prices. It was real empires.

There was resistance but the French for long years could put it down. In vain the Vietnamese pleaded for freedom "within the French Union."

The French did not seem to realize that the era of colonialism had about ended in the Far East. Indonesia pulled loose from the Dutch, India and Burma were released by Britain. The Philippines, by an earlier agreement, received independence from America.

Still the French held on. There were reasons, and large ones. France was fighting to keep a place among the big powers after her defeat by Germany. She needed the wealth of Indochina, wanted to preserve a foothold in Asia.

The commercial angle still is important to France, but the world-power factor seems to influence her leaders most today. In Europe, the United States has paid out billions to help her in this struggle. But here, in recent months, the policy has changed radically and some of the local exponents of American policy give little heed to such matters.

One of the more bitter chapters was written at Geneva last year when the French, beaten in the field despite American aid, in effect signed away their rights in North Indochina. They promised the South also the right to vote its freedom. But it was not in the hearts of the French to let it go, and therein lies much of the source of the current troubles.

Rabbi Sees Beauty In Child's Death

CLEVELAND (AP) — A rabbi who was there when 3-year-old Wendy Kushner died said "she looked like a beautiful withered flower."

"That child radiated beauty, even through all her suffering," said Rabbi David L. Genuth.

The little girl died of cancer Wednesday night. During her year-long illness, she received more than 50,000 cards and letters from people who had read about her.

Rabbi Genuth said he knew her suffering was not in vain; that "this is religion at its best."

She was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Milton H. Kushner.

Ticking Package Arouses Postman

CHICAGO (AP) — A railroad mail clerk came across a package that not only ticked ominously, like maybe a time bomb, but also rang at intervals.

The clerk summoned a postoffice inspector. The inspector sent for the police bomb squad. The police took the package to a parking lot and carefully cut it open. They found a battery-operated intercommunication system. They rewrapped the package and mailed it along to Jerry Nelson of Washington, who was expecting it from Morris J. Nelson of Ripon, Wis.

TODAY'S GARDEN-GRAPH

Reg. U. S. Patent Office

Marrows Worth Knowing Better

By DEAN HALLIDAY

Distributed by Central Press Association

VEGETABLE marrows are a most interesting, but different type of squash. In past years they were not grown as much in this country as they were in Europe, where they are rated along with peas and asparagus for their delicious flavor. They are now more popular in this country, and they are well worth knowing better.

There is both a summer and a winter type of marrow. The Italian marrow, Cocozelle Bush, illustrated in the accompanying Garden-Graph, is a summer variety, one of several strains. When mature the fruits vary from 18 inches in length to several feet, and from three to seven inches in diameter. The Boston Marrow, shown in the Garden-Graph, is the earliest winter marrow. It looks like a smooth Hubbard squash, but has a light orange colored skin and deep orange colored flesh. It varies from six to nine pounds in weight. This marrow is known as the "basket pumpkin" and is excellent as a pie filling. In fact, people who know this fruit well use it more for pumpkin pies than true pumpkins.

Seeds of marrows can be planted now, in hills or in your corn patch as you would pumpkins. It is almost impossible to get the soil too rich for marrows.

Walter Hays Is Contest Winner

Judged Top Speaker
In Ohio Conference

Walter Hays reigns today as the champion public speaker of the Ohio Conference of the Methodist Church.

Hays, the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hays of 901 East Temple Street, won the title Friday evening in a competition at Lakeside auditorium, where he spoke before a crowd estimated at more than 3,000.

Walter Hays

The contest Friday was the last round in a series planned to discover the top temperance speaker among young people in the Ohio Conference, which covers about three-fifths of the state. Hays had previously won similar contests in the Grace Methodist Church here, and the district and regional contests.

His prize was a gold medal and $100. His winning speech will be published in pamphlet form, and Hays had already been requested to deliver it in several places, including the King Avenue Methodist Church in Columbus and the youth rally of the Lima district of the Methodist Church.

HAYS' TOPIC was "Think—Do not Drink." Hays and the two youngsters competing against him—both winners of regional contests elsewhere in the state—had written their speeches themselves. Bringing together material from a variety of sources ranging from the Bible to auto accident statistics for 1954, Hays listed three reasons why American youth should "think—not drink."

He quoted medical authorities who find the use of alcohol "physically injurious." He said alcohol contributes to juvenile delinquency and other moral breakdowns. Finally, he said the Bible and the tenets of Christian faith prohibit drinking.

Judges in the contest were Rev. John Knight of Trinity Methodist Church in Columbus and former president of Baldwin Wallace College in Berea and former president of Nebraska Wesleyan; Rev. Clare Ingham, Conference youth director with his office in Columbus, and Rev. S. R. Dunham, retired preacher.

Hays will be a student at Wilmington College next year.

Legion Juniors Win Two Games Sunday

The American Legion junior ball team here got into action twice Sunday, winning both games of a double bill that pitted them against teams from Chillicothe and Springfield.

In the first half the double bill, the Washington C. H. boys edged the Chillicothe Legion team, 5-4. In the second, they blanked the Springfield Elks Club team, 1-0.

The team, sponsored by the Paul Hughey Post of the American Legion, scored their five runs against Chillicothe on five hits. The losers had six hits and four errors. Hughey Post bobbled three times.

Graves pitched the first nine innings and struck out nine. Kimball finished the game, pitching his team to victory in the last inning. The second game went into extra innings as neither team could score until the 13th inning. Washington C. H. finally pushed over a run then to win the game.

The second game went into extra and one error; Springfield hit three times and miscued once. Mercer struck out five in six innings and McFadden pitched down five more in seven to become the winner.

Belmont Position Taken by Mrs. Bush

Mrs. Billie Bush, who had been the secretary to Glen Allen, the manager of the Chamber of Commerce here, for the last year, today was packing up to leave Friday for St. Clairsville where she will be the executive-secretary of the Belmont County Tuberculosis and Health Association.

The association there, Mrs. Bush said, is organized and run on the same pattern as the Fayette County association. Her office will be in the Belmont Sanatorium, which is similar to Mt. Logan Sanatorium that serves the district including Fayette County.

Mrs. Bush said she would get a course of on-the-job training to acquaint her with certain specific phases of her work but, she added, her business experience provided a valuable background. She has held positions in the Barnhart Oil Co. office and the Singer Sewing Center here.

She was first interviewed for a position with a county TB and Health Association (not the one at St. Clairsville) about six weeks ago, she said. Since then she said she had 11 more interviews, plus mail correspondence.

Mrs. Bush's place with the Chamber of Commerce has been taken by Miss Darlene Thornton, a 1955 graduate of Washington C. H. High School. Manager Allen said Miss Thornton was there on a part-time basis.

Rev. Clinton Swengel Stays Here

3 Methodist Pastors Returned to County

Rev. Clinton P. Swengel will continue as the pastor of Grace Methodist Church here for another year in accordance with the assignments made at the annual Ohio Methodist Conference last week at Lakeside.

He was one of three Methodist ministers in Fayette County not transferred.

Dr. Edwin H. Dickey was reappointed superintendent of the Wilmington district, which includes most of the churches in the county—the exceptions are the church at Bloomingburg and those of the Good Hope circuit.

The other two churches that are to continue next year with their present ministers are at Milledgeville, where Rev. George R. Groh is the pastor and at Jeffersonville where Rev. Norman Newman is the pastor.

Rev. Groh was ordained at the conference.

Rev. Swengel will be starting his fourth year as the pastor of Grace Church.

Rev. Eugene E. Frazer of the Good Hope parish was assigned to the East View Church in Columbus, but no appointment of his successor at Good Hope was announced with the other list of assignments issued by Bishop Hazen G. Werner, of the Ohio area of the church.

Rev. H. H. Ricketts was transferred from Derby to the Bloomingburg church and Rev. Lester Taylor of Bloomingburg was assigned to the Kingston church.

Rev. Marvin Schumann was transferred from the Washington C. H. Circuit to New Vienna and William S. Peilly, a divinity student from the United Seminary in Dayton is to be the Washington C. H. Circuit pastor.

Rev. Joseph K. Price was moved from the New Holland Church to Anna and Rev. Glenn Robinson of Anna, will be stationed at New Holland.

Rev. Roy Vandegriff was returned to the Greenfield church and Rev. C. A. Arthur remains at Leesburg.

Girl, 14, Slays Man She Thought Menaced Her Dad

WHITESBURG, Ky. (AP)—A 14-year-old girl, firing a rifle from the doorway of her rural home last night, shot and killed a man who, she said, "was coming up the holler to shoot my daddy."

Sheriff Robert Collins said today Ella Sexton was charged with murder after Hobart Combs, about 35, was killed at the Sexton home.

The shot, fired from a .22 caliber rifle at dusk, hit Combs in the left shoulder and ranged down to the region of his heart.

A few hours before the fatal shooting, the sheriff said, Combs and the girl's father, Troy Sexton, exchanged several bullets as the result of an argument over three 50-cent pieces.

Sheriff Collins said Combs and an unidentified man left the Sexton home after the first shooting, but returned just before dark. That was when the girl, fearful of her father's life, fired.

A variance in U. S. Geological Survey figures for Washington C. H., has led to some confusion as to the official elevation above sea level here.

One U. S. Geological Survey map, issued in 1948 shows the official elevation here as 910 feet, but earlier topographical maps show the elevation to be 979.9 feet at a bench mark in the window in the south corner of the Court House.

Checking with County Engineer Charles Wagner, he came up with a sizeable book giving elevations throughout Ohio. It is an Ohio Topographical Survey by Sherman and the elevation here is listed as 979.9 feet above sea level.

Those who have set barometers by any other elevation, can adjust their instruments accordingly, but must not forget that the elevation varies around 250 feet in the county.

The bench mark at the Court House here has been all but obliterated by chunks of the metal having been pried off.

All figures on it have been removed.

were made in every district in the conference.

Pastoral assignments are effective immediately and for those who were transferred, this will be a busy week.

Rev. Schumann, who received his bachelor of divinity from the Hanna Divinity School at Wittenberg College only about a month ago, and his family are packing up now to move to New Vienna, where he is to deliver his first sermon next Sunday. He said he now has a master of sacred theology degree as his objective and that he hopes to enter clinical training in the Miami Valley Hospital in the near future.

Neither Rev. Frazer nor Rev. Taylor were immediately available for comment on their transfers, but it has been learned from laymen at the conference that a pastor for the Good Hope parish's four churches will be appointed in the very near future by Dr. Carl Hickcy, superintendent of the Chillicothe district. Bloomingburg also is in the Chillicothe district, but a new minister was assigned to the church there.

Two Hurt When Driver Sleeps

Sheriff Investigates Pair Of Accidents

Donald Coy, 38, and Donald Bailey, both of Dayton, sustained severe cuts about the head, bruises and other injuries at 6 A. M. Sunday, when Coy fell asleep and the car he was driving left the road. The car was demolished on the concrete end of a culvert on the Chillicothe Road eight miles southeast of Washington C. H.

Sheriff Orland Hays investigated the accident and found the car had started leaving the road 132 feet from the culvert. The car was owned by Bailey.

Both men were taken to Memorial Hospital in the Gerstner ambulance.

Sheriff Hays also investigated an accident on the CCC Highway, west, along the Bea-Mar Farm six miles west of Washington C. H., where Herschel McCormick, Luster, Mo., had lost control of his car and it dropped into one of the 18-inch excavations where the road is being widened, took the ditch and tore down four rods of Bea-Mar fence.

McCormick carried insurance and arranged to pay for the damage. His car was in running order so he continued on his way.

McCormick said he was looking for a motel when he drove off the road.

In a third accident, near Sabina, investigated by the highway patrol, Roy Weiser of Sabina, sustained severe lacerations and was treated at Memorial Hospital.

Ohio Accidents Claim 21 Lives

COLUMBUS (AP)—Four accidents which took two lives each contributed heavily to a death toll of 13 on Ohio roads from 6 p. m. Friday through last midnight.

Accidents involving two deaths took place in Columbus and near Granville on Saturday and in the vicinities of Toledo and Steubenville yesterday.

Drownings, a shooting and two cases of children choking swelled the states' weekend accidental death list to 21.

Man Cuffs Boy; Parents Thankful

READING, Pa. (AP)—A powerful smack by a diesel locomotive brakeman sent two-year-old Billy Mattson sprawling yesterday and the child's parents expressed gratitude.

Bill was walking along the tracks of the Reading Railroad in the path of a 40-car freight train, which hadn't enough time to brake.

Brakeman Aloysius A. Russell, 26, saw the boy from his seat in the cab of the locomotive. He raced up the catwalk on the outside of the engine and reached down and cuffed the boy clear of the train. Injuries were minor.

GEORGE ZOOKOVA, 3, and his brother, Alexander, 5, are happy to be out of Red China and in Hong Kong. They arrived with their mother, Mrs. W. Zookova, a stateless Russian woman who was born in Harbin, Manchuria, and lived in Shanghai for 14 years. The boys said "American beat us in Shanghai," but when reminded there are no Americans there, they replied "They (the Reds) told us so."

Stevenson Urges Bargaining In Coming Big Four Parley

OBERLIN (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson urged today that the forthcoming "conference at the summit" be approached with an attitude of bargaining.

The former Democratic presidential candidate, in a speech prepared for commencement exercises at Oberlin College, said "our role is to keep our hopes high but our heads clear."

He said every suggestion must be considered "honestly and dispassionately," and that the United States should look for "bases of agreement and be willing to take some reasonable chances."

"To want peace is to want compromise," he said. "It is not to demand perfection but to be willing to accept something less, perhaps much less, than perfection."

Sheriff Hays also investigated an accident on the CCC Highway, west, along the Bea-Mar Farm six miles west of Washington C. H., where Herschel McCormick, Luster, Mo., had lost control of his car and it dropped into one of the 18-inch excavations where the road is being widened, took the ditch and tore down four rods of Bea-Mar fence.

McCormick carried insurance and arranged to pay for the damage. His car was in running order so he continued on his way.

McCormick said he was looking for a motel when he drove off the road.

In a third accident, near Sabina, investigated by the highway patrol, Roy Weiser of Sabina, sustained severe lacerations and was treated at Memorial Hospital.

Mass Funeral Set For 79 Killed At Race

LE MANS, France (AP)—A mass funeral will be held in Le Mans' 600-year-old Gothic cathedral tomorrow for 79 persons killed in the worst disaster in the history of auto racing.

The toll rose today with the death of one of the 76 persons injured Saturday when French driver Pierre Levegh's big silver Mercedes-Benz hit another racer during the annual 24-hour sports car race, caromed across the track and plowed flaming into the crowd packed 20 deep against the barrier.

Hospital officials said five or six of the injured were still "in desperate condition."

One American was among the injured spectators. He was Roy Hunton, a U.S. soldier stationed at an Army hospital in Orleans. Most of the dead, including 15 women and 2 children, were believed to have been French, although several bodies still had not been identified. Levegh also was among those killed.

Despite the tragedy, the famous 24-hour race for sports cars was carried to its conclusion, with Mike Hawthorn and co-driver Ivor Bueb of Britain winning in a three-liter Jaguar at a record-breaking average speed of 107.067 miles per hour.

Officials said halting the race would have cluttered roads leading to the track with the quarter of a million spectators at a time when ambulances and rescue workers already were having trouble reaching the site.

Actress Injured

but better than the alternative which is a sharpening and prolonging of ugly, dangerous tensions."

The talks among the heads of the governments of the United States, Russia, France and England are expected to take place in Geneva around the end of July.

STEVENS said the "effectiveness of this nation's participation depends not in any sense upon the President alone."

"If we the people are uncompromising," he said, "if we equate negotiation with appeasement, if we think war is inevitable, if we regard every Soviet proposal as a trick and a trap, if we think that what is advantageous for one is automatically disadvantageous for the other, then we the people will have ruled out bargaining."

"Not even the President can negotiate if we tie his hands."

"And we shall have to learn that diplomacy by hindsight is not good. We shall have to learn not to denounce our representatives as traitors or suspicious characters if anything goes wrong in the future."

"Trading used to be considered a Yankee talent and I think it still is, if we don't put our traders in a strait jacket or scare them stiff in advance."

4 Girls Missing From State School

DELAWARE (AP)—Authorities pressed their search today for four girls who escaped from the Girls' Industrial School here.

Four other girls who fled the institution early yesterday were captured nine hours later.

State highway patrolman L. C. Farnsworth said the girls, all between 15 and 17, left the school in two groups.

The second group of four girls fled the institution minutes after the first four. There was no trace of the second group.

Boy Swallows Electric Fuse

IRVING, Tex. (AP)—The afternoon nap of Lance Morrison, 5, was short-circuited Sunday when he swallowed an electric fuse while resting in bed. His parents rushed him to a hospital. Doctors X-rayed him and decided the inch-long, pencil-sized fuse would do little harm. It wasn't known how Lance got the fuse.

15,000 Government Aides To Take Part In Evacuation

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower goes back to war on a simulated basis Wednesday to lead 15,000 top-bracket government officials and employees in an unprecedented partial evacuation of the national capital.

With two hours warning at best, atom or hydrogen weapons supposedly will blast Washington and 48 other selected target cities in the nation, along with six more in Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico and the Canal Zone.

Sirens shortly after noon Wednesday will signal the start of Operation Alert 1955, to test government action as well as civil defense plans around the nation.

Eisenhower, the Cabinet, military chiefs and other key leaders will scramble into cars, planes and buses and head for secret retreats to start running the government on a war crisis basis. Secretary of Defense Wilson will use a helicopter.

Then, for three days, the carefully picked core of essential people from 31 federal departments and agencies will operate from secret relocation sites spread out as far as 300 miles northwest, west and southwest of Washington.

They will handle some of the normal routine of government. But mainly they will take on the burden of solving the vast maze of problems that would descend on them in the first 30 days of a nuclear war.

Some of the evacuated workers will live in hotels, motels and boarding houses for the three-day

Argentine Cops Arrest 430 In Religious Feud

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—Police raided the palace of Argentina's Roman Catholic primate early today and arrested 430 men who had taken refuge there after rioting between Roman Catholics and backers of President Juan D. Peron in the street outside.

Worshippers were caught inside the adjacent Metropolitan Cathedral by the fighting late yesterday in the Plaza de Mayo. Police finally restored order with tear gas and chemical foam.

Many then moved into the palace through a connecting doorway and barricaded the doors with benches, desks and chairs.

The primate, Santiago Luis Cardinal Copello, 75, was absent. He was reported ill and staying at his suburban San Isidro home. But many priests were on hand when the police appeared.

With the officers was Federal Judge Carlos A. Gentile who ordered all the women released. He set up an improvised office within the palace to take identification of the prisoners. The men were packed into police wagons and carted off to central police headquarters.

THE PRIESTS were permitted to remain in the palace.

A police communique said those arrested were suspected of starting rumors the cathedral had been burned. The police said the rumors were intended to produce a disturbance. They said they found pistols in a car parked nearby.

As the government cracked down on the church partisans, President Juan Peron marshaled his forces today for support in his bitter feud with the nation's pre-dominant church.

It was Argentina's gravest political crisis in two years.

At least eight persons were injured by flying stones last night when bands shouting "Long Live Peron! Down with the pope!" clashed in the Central Plaza with Roman Catholics chanting "Long Live Christ the King."

The turmoil raised tension to its highest pitch since the church-state dispute broke out seven months ago after Peron's charge that church elements were plotting to undermine his regime. Church officials have denied the charge.

The running dispute came to a head Saturday night when church followers held a Corpus Christi parade in Buenos Aires streets despite a government ban. The government charged the Roman Catholic clergy incited the marchers to burn the Argentine flag, stone newspaper offices and public buildings and attack several foreign embassies.

40-Year-Old Bill Paid To Hospital

CHICAGO (AP)—A former hospital patient has paid a $21 bill and added $79 for his oversight of the bill he got 40 years ago.

Sister Mary de Chanelet, administrator of St. Mary of Nazareth Hospital said the one-time patient, John Rola, about 63, brought the bill to the hospital, saying he had found it among some old papers. He said it was for 21 days' hospitalization after a motorcycle accident in 1915 but he remained in the hospital two months.

Murder Hearing Is Delayed Again

MCCONNELSVILLE (AP)—A fourth postponement was announced today in resumption of a first-degree murder trial because of the illness of Common Pleas Judge Carlos Reicker.

The trial of Mrs. Frances Sloan, accused of slaying her 16-year-old nephew, Kenneth Strohl, now is scheduled to resume June 20. The trial opened May 23, then was recessed because of the judge.

test. But 600 will occupy floorless tents without plumbing.

Congress and the courts aren't taking part. All 227,000 Washington employees of the executive branch of government, however, will evacuate their offices on a token basis.

In Operation Alert, the assumption is that the target cities will be smashed by nuclear weapons with the power of 20,000 to five millions tons of TNT. Guided missiles with atomic warheads, from Russian bases, supposedly will strike Alaska and submarines will launch nuclear destruction on Hawaii, Puerto Rico and Panama.

New York, Chicago, Los Angeles and points in between will be "bombed." Cities that produce planes, munitions, cars, chemicals, power, electronics equipment, steel, aluminum, ships, machine tools and other important war goods are on the target list.

With industry and business "shattered" and millions of "casualties and refugees," Eisenhower and the other top-level officials will take on the theoretical job of retaliation and recovery.

Some of the results will be made public through an emergency press center at one relocation center. For security reasons, others will not.

Gallipolis Rapped In State Lawsuit

COLUMBUS (AP)—Atty. Gen. C. William O'Neill today filed suit against the city of Gallipolis for violating water pollution laws.

O'Neill, in an affidavit filed in Gallia County common pleas court, asserted the city since Feb. 15, had discharged sewage and industrial waste in the Ohio River and Chickamauga Creek.

The affidavit said this release of waste was done without a permit of the Ohio Water Pollution Control Board and in violation of the state pollution control law.

27 Ladybirds Off To Havana

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP)—Twenty-seven women pilots, the survivors of a starting field of 33, took off from this southernmost U. S. city today on the last lap of the Washington-to-Havana air race.

Bad weather had plagued the ladybirds since they flew into Florida Friday and Saturday and for a time their planes were scattered at airports all the way from Charleston, S. C., to Key West.

Good flying conditions were reported over the 90-mile stretch of water between here and Havana.

The Prins Willem II of the Orange Line will continue to Toledo, Detroit, Green Bay, Milwaukee and Chicago before returning to Holland with American manufactured products and food.

Ohio's Big Unions Opening Drive On Idle Pay Issue

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's two major labor groups today turned their big guns against a House bill to revamp workmen's compensation procedures and benefits.

The bill is scheduled for a House vote Tuesday.

In a joint letter to all House members, Phil Hannah and Jacob Clayman, secretary-treasurers of the Ohio AFL and CIO respectively, asked floor amendments to:

1. Make a further increase in maximum benefits for injured workers. The bill now calls for a boost in top benefits from $32.50 to $40.25 a week.
2. Restore the right of an injured worker to take his claim before a Common Pleas Court jury on appeal from an award he finds unsatisfactory. The bill shifts the ultimate appeal from the Common Pleas to the appellate court where cases are heard by judges rather than juries.

Guaranteed Pay Plan Given Nod By Big Company

Chrysler Listed Next By UMW Chieftain As Target For Demands

DETROIT (AP)—The CIO United Auto Workers today nailed down at General Motors Corp. the same guaranteed wage plan it won a week ago from Ford.

Walter Reuther, UAW president, thus firmly established the controversial employer-paid supplemental unemployment benefit system in the auto industry, an important beachhead from which he hopes to launch it into other industries.

In fact, Reuther said today his union will make a guaranteed annual wage plan its No. 1 demand on Chrysler Corp.

"We'll settle that at the bargaining table," Reuther said in reference to the "little three."

The UAW-Chrysler contract expires Aug. 31, with bargaining scheduled to begin June 30.

THE THREE-YEAR General Motors agreement was hammered out in a pre-dawn settlement after more than 37 hours of bargaining broken only by brief recesses.

The GM pact closely followed the recent Ford Motor Co. contract in nearly every respect. It calls for improvements in pay, pensions, vacations and holidays similar to those worked out at Ford.

In addition, it grants the UAW a full union shop for the first time, meaning that GM's relatively few nonunion workers must now join the union to keep their jobs.

The contract covers 375,000 wage earners represented by the UAW. The present pay scale of hourly workers is $2.10 an hour. The pay of skilled workers ranges upwards from an approximate base of $2.50 an hour.

An additional 35,000 GM employees represented by the CIO International Union of Electrical Workers were given the same economic benefits under an agreement reached an hour after the UAW settlement was announced. The Electrical Workers had threatened to join the auto workers in any strike action.

Reuther called the GM settlement "an extremely significant and far-reaching contract" costing the corporation $600 million over the three-year period. Reuther said it was worth better than 20 cents an hour per employee, like the Ford contract. GM President Harlow H. Curtice said it assured the vast GM auto empire of three more years of labor peace.

GM LIKE FORD agreed to guarantee laid-off workers 60 to 65 per cent of regular take-home pay including state unemployment compensation benefits, for a maximum of 26 weeks. GM will contribute 5 cents an hour per worker toward a $150 million trust to finance the plan over the next three years.

GM Vice President Harry W. Anderson, top company negotiator, said he was "happy to report that many of the five, progressive features of the first proposal we made to the UAW-CIO four weeks ago have been incorporated in this new agreement."

Among these he listed:
Guaranteed pay raises of 6 to 8 cents an hour for all employees in each of the next three years. An extra raise of at least 6 cents an hour for skilled workers.

Pension plan improvements to boost maximum pensions to more than $250 a month, including social security.

Elimination or reduction of wage inequities for 90,000 employees.

An extra half week vacation for employees with 10 years or more service.

One extra paid holiday a year. Improvements in the hospital-medical-insurance plan.

Other portions of the original GM settlement proposal rejected by the UAW were not among the settlement terms. These included an opportunity for employees to buy company stock at half price, an interest-free loan plan for laid-off workers an dseparation pay.

Progress Made On County Road Improvements

Commissions Told
By County Engineer
Of Work Completed

Progress in improvements in connection with the program set up for Fayette County highways was reported by County Engineer Charles Wagner to the county commissioners at their regular meeting Monday morning at the Court House.

The commissioners have been greatly interested in setting up a program of road work in this county during the past two years with special attention directed toward making the dollars allotted to the county highway fund, go as far as possible consistent with types of improvement which will stand the wear and tear of heavy traffic under all weather conditions.

THE COUNTY ROAD improvements recently completed are: the Bloomingburg-New Holland road in Marion Township for a distance of 4.35 miles; the Pleasant View road, Jefferson Township, 3.11 miles; Boyd road in Wayne Township, 2.43 miles, also the Cisco road in the same township, .91 of a mile; the Capps road in Perry Township, 2.80 miles.

This represents a total of 13.60 miles of recent improvements done at a total cost of $32,000, for these five roads.

It also was reported that the grading on the Staebus road and the Creamer road in Jefferson Township is practically completed. The approaches to the DT&I Railway on the Staebus Road have been filled raising the roadway level several feet in order to give the traveling public a better view of any approaching trains.

THE MEYERS road in Paint and Madison Townships, which is undergoing grading, will be completed in a short time.

All three of these newly graded roads also will receive surface treatment by an application of asphalt as soon as the weather permits, it was said.

There was no other business before the county commissioners at Monday's meeting except approval of bills and discussion of other proposed minor road improvements.

Dr. Salk Sees Better Polio Vaccine Plan

WASHINGTON (U)—Dr. Jonas E. Salk says the U.S. Public Health Services new manufacturing standards for his polio vaccine "will preclude deviation from the procedures originally intended."

Earlier troubles with some commercial lots of the vaccine may have developed, he said, "because the phrasing of the minimum government requirements allowed for differing interpretations."

Salk expressed these views in a telegram to Surgeon General Leonard A. Scheele made public early today in Pittsburgh. He did not directly criticize the health service, but he indicated that he disagrees with some sections of its report on the entire polio vaccine program.

"I recognize that this represents your views and those of your staff," Salk said, adding there are points both "wherein I concur and wherein I do not."

The health service report, released last week, said that troubles developed when production of the vaccine was shifted from the laboratory to a full-scale commercial operation.

In a statement that some have viewed as critical of Dr. Salk's theories, the report said that "the process of inactivation (which renders the polio virus in the vaccine harmless) did not always follow the predicted course."

Salk did not go into any detail

"Mary Hawthorth's Mail"

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: I would like to know just what is a nagging wife? I mean, what is your definition?

I have been accused by my husband of being a nagging wife lately. That is something I don't want to be; and I didn't think I was. That's why I would like a good definition of the term, so that I can correct the condition if it exists. Thank you for helping me better my ways—if I should.

G. Y.

Joyless Attitude

DEAR G. Y.: It is my understanding that a nagger is one who gives frequent attention to the flaws in persons and/or situations; and who irritates associates by persistent fault finding, scolding or urging.

The nagger is anxious and dependent in temperament, geared to perfectionist notions of how things (and people) should be—due to severe upbringing, usually.

Characteristically, the nagger is in a state of unrest and dissatisfaction, owing to the gap between (1) his ingrained standards and (2) his record of achievement. This unrest goes back to a sense of personal inadequacy and insecurity—so that he is always on pins and needles, as the saying goes, to "do something" more about his circumstances. And, being always goaded by his own stressful unconscious drive, he spontaneously and involuntarily goads his intimates also.

It isn't so much the actual word content of the nagger's commentary, as it is the joyless pitch of his voice and personality, that evokes obstinacy in others—thus involving the nagger in a conversational duel with whatever person he is trying to "teach." The nagger habitually feels unpleasantly disposed towards the facts of his existence, unfortunately—which makes him an emotional drag (even a deadweight) in close relationship, and therefore the object of mounting distaste or resentment, in most cases.

Passing the Buck?

You may, or may not, be a nagging wife. It is a classic dodge of the troublesome party in double harness to wrongly accuse the justly reproachful spouse of being "a nagger." This is the standard excuse of the alcoholic husband, the philanderer, the financial wastrel, the childish, self-indulgent type who won't be a helpmate—the excuse of claiming that wife's nagging is responsible for his destructive, disoblighing, ungoverned behavior. It isn't at all.

A man or wife of substantially good quality won't let a mate's relentless nagging make him (or her) a bad actor. Rather, the righteous character deals constructively with that sort of thing insofar as he can—constructively in terms of being patient, conciliatory, extra-accommodating, etc., while also expounding his own theories of fair play.

Then, if his resources are overtaxed, if his patience is exhausted and his nervous health jeopardized by the nagger's performance, he takes a stand in self-defense—and obtains some redress. Either the nagger changes his tune, and gets specialist help in mending his outlook; or the team splits up. But nobody has to (and nobody should) let a nagging spouse goad him to self-damaging action—to philandering, alcoholism, financial folly, etc.

It is to your credit that you have taken your husband's accusation to heart; that you want to know if you are at fault. This open-minded attitude suggests that you are teachable, reasonable, agreeably inclined; and that your husband is on the defensive, with a bad conscience, when he says you nag.

Early Man's Camps Found In Nevada

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Some 23,800 years before the era of the resort hotel, the hemisphere's earliest-known man gambled for his life among the mammoths near what is now Las Vegas, Nev.

M. R. Harrington, curator of Southwest Museum in Los Angeles, says that the early man's campsites have been discovered in the same strata with the bones of a mammoth, forerunner of the elephant.

He said that a recent expedition to the ancient campsite also uncovered the bones of a camel that had been dismembered, cooked and eaten by men. The bones had been split with crude stone hatchets found at the scene.

"We were hoping to find human bones," Harrington said. "What the ancient dwellers there did with their dead I don't know."

The traces of early life were tested by the "Carbon 14" method, which set their age at 23,800 years, Harrington said. The oldest previous indication of human life in the hemisphere (set at 11,000 years) was found among charcoal deposits near Winnemucca, Nev.

The carbon test measures the amount of carbon 14, a radio-active isotope of carbon, remaining in an object. The radioactivity weakens away at a precisely known rate, so scientists can measure the amount left over and thus estimate the relic's age.

There have been only four total eclipses of the sun lasting more than seven minutes during the 20th century.

La Russell Is All Enthused About Adoption Foundation

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Jane Russell continues to confound the type casters by refusing to live up to her film siren reputation offscreen.

La Russell has never been loquacious about her movie career. But get her started on a topic dear to her heart like WAIF and she'll talk from now until Tuesday. The initials stand for Women's Adoption International Fund.

"The organization was set up three years ago," explained Jane, one of its leaders. "There seemed to be a real need for a group which could attend to one of the world's most pressing human problems. That is: that there are areas in the world where people want children, and there are other areas where children need parents."

"The purpose of WAIF is to help these two groups get together." "One of our principle problems is adoption laws," she explained. "Most of them were enacted merely as a protection against white slavery. There are 33 different adoption laws in this country, and many of them are pretty poor. We hope all of the states will adopt a standard, up-to-date code for adoptions."

"Finding parents is no problem—we have 100 prospective parents for every available child," she remarked.

"What we need is money to promote our work. We get some contributions at WAIF, but a cause like this requires a personal approach."

Jane said she became interested in adoption matters when she encountered difficulty adopting children herself. She and Bob Waterfield now have a daughter, Tracy, 4, adopted in this country, and Tommy, 5, from a British couple who felt he would have more advantages in this country.

The actress added that the main

Life And Growth Of Calf Amazing

Livestock farmers in the neighborhood have been watching with considerable astonishment the life and growth of a tiny calf a Jersey cow gave birth to a little more than two weeks ago.

The cow is owned by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cox who live in Jeffersonville. The sire of the calf is a black Angus.

When the calf was born it weighed not quite 16 pounds, was only 21 inches tall and 25 inches long. Despite its diminutive size at birth, it is coming along nicely now and has gained around 9 pounds.

Dr. R. D. Little is maintaining a sort of scientific watch over the little fellow: so is Bud Hartman, who sells the feed to the Coxes for mother and child.

Hartman said Dr. Little told him that "it is very unusual" for a calf so small to survive. He guessed the average weight of a newborn calf would be "around 50 to 70 pounds." There was no indication that it was born prematurely.

Memories

By JACOB MILLER

The early pioneer was prone to attribute bad luck to so-called witches. For instance, if his horse or cow became sick, he would think some one in the community was bewitching the animal. One of the treatments was to shoot a silver bullet into the animal which the owner thought would kill the witch, which inhabited the animal, and then the animal would get well. It was also believed that these witches were able to fly through the air on a broomhandle, and to do this, they sold themselves to Satan.

One of the great pasts of the pioneer was roving bands of gypsies, who would camp near some settlement and practice their art of theft and pilfering on the kindly natives, buying what they could not steal with counterfeit money. By the time the resident discovered the fraud, the gypsies were far away.

Itinerant preachers, who would appear from time to time, seemed filled with burning zeal, to bring Christ into the homes; there was the schoolteacher also, who boarded around the neighborhood, and the children had to go from long distances to the school to learn the three R's. Some of the pioneer children became famous in after-years in their chosen fields of endeavor.

Even now, most of our great leaders of today were born in lowly surroundings. Our colleges have large enrollments of farm boys and girls studying the up-to-date modes of agriculture.

Foreign rulers and high officials from all parts of the world come to study our methods of husbandry and to take home to their country, very expensive, pedigreed animals to improve their own herds.

I attribute the leadership of our nation as being due to that little clause in the constitution, which says that, "A man can worship God according to the dictates of his own conscience."

Suppose Spain or France had been the dominant power in former days instead of England. What a different nation our own might have become. I think God is using this nation as a guide for the world. I once heard a saloon-keeper say, "This would be a terrible town, if we had no churches."

"Inconsistency, thou art a Jew-ell."

The UN's Tenth Anniversary This Month

This year, June 25, the tenth anniversary of the historic event of the signing of the charter of the United Nations, will be observed with fitting ceremonies in San Francisco where the United Nations was officially founded.

President Eisenhower is scheduled to deliver an opening address to the UN delegates, marking the occasion one of international importance.

The UN has come in for a lot of criticism from those who believe it has not done an aggressive enough job in stopping or cleaning up controversies which held the threat of war which could again become world-wide.

This last ten year period has been one of frustration and impatience with the shortcomings of the UN. Its use, on many occasions, by the Communists as a propaganda forum, has seemed to be far too frequent.

Nevertheless, out of the U.N. has come a somewhat better understanding by many nations of the world, of America's basic position. That much must be recognized by all fair-minded people. We have made considerable headway in many quarters by our example of the progress of a Free Republic.

As an example our relationship with the Philippine Islands has, by no means, been lost upon those countries seeking their own independence from Colonialism. The Bandung Conference is reported to have witnessed a remarkable demonstration of American friendship due to the broadened understanding of our role in world affairs.

Many of us who have been somewhat disappointed in what we think we see in UN weaknesses, may not know all the facts. It is quite possible that Russia has learned that her maneuvering toward world control by Communism, is now more clearly seen by many nations which she hoped to win over.

A great many people who have studied the situation in world-wide affairs, are inclined to the view that delegates to the U.N. cannot fail to be impressed by what they see, and sense, in the United States. Those impressions are carried back in an influential way to their own countries.

For all its weaknesses, the UN still holds a great possibility as being the longest step toward international cooperation which has yet been taken in mankind's history.

Billy--A Mixed-Up Kid?

By Hal Boyle

The West had its juvenile delinquents, too.

The most famous was William H. Bonney, better known as "Billy the Kid."

Historians still argue over the real character and actual criminal record of this buck-toothed frontier lad.

Legend has it that in his brief 21 years he killed 21 men, "not counting Indians and Mexicans." But that is only legend.

Was Billy, a Brooklyn tenement product left fatherless at three, a born mobster with murder in his heart? Or was he just a victim of his wild environment, a crazy mixed-up kid?

Nearly 75 years after his death the souvenirs of his controversial career have made him one of New Mexico's greatest tourist draws.

Nobody had heard much about Billy until the opening of the celebrated "Lincoln County War," which has since inspired countless Hollywood horse operas.

The war was a struggle for economic and political power between two rival factions of frontier rangers, general storekeepers and politicians.

It began Feb. 18, 1878, when a posse, deputized to serve legal papers on John Tunstall, an English-born rancher, met him on a road and, instead of the papers, served him two bullets.

Billy, who had been befriended by Tunstall, joined the slain rancher's other hired hands in seeking revenge.

Before the war ended battles between the two factions left 14 men dead in this small town alone.

Billy was promised a full pardon by territorial Governor Lew Wallace, and surrendered. But he became suspicious of the situation and rode away unhindered.

Later, brought to trial for a subsequent slaying and sentenced to hang, the Kid recalled the earlier bargain with Gov. Wallace and complained he was being given a raw deal. When Wallace pointed out that his promise had been given at a different time for a different crime Billy killed his two guards in the courthouse jail and galloped off.

Exactly 77 days later at midnight on July 14, 1881, Sheriff Pat Garrett caught up with Billy.

Sitting in a blackened room, the sheriff ambushed Billy. He shot him above the heart as the Kid, half dressed and shoeless, stood uncertainly at the doorway and called in Spanish, "who is it? who is it?"

They buried Billy in a borrowed white shirt too big for his thin small frame, and an Indian girl put a wooden cross above his grave inscribed, "Sleep Well, Beloved."

Ford's 'Fund For The Republic'

By George Sokolsky

When the Ford Foundation gave Paul Hoffman, its president, $15,000,000 to form the Fund for the Republic, Hoffman ceased to be the head of the Ford Foundation. Similarly when Robert Hutchins left the Ford Foundation, he found a position with the Fund for the Republic. Since then the two organizations have gone their separate course, and, I understand, no love is lost between them.

In the public mind, however, the Fund for the Republic remains in some manner related to the Ford Foundation and no steps have been taken by the parent to speak of its offspring in public as some speak of it in private. If then it is suggested that Ford Foundation money is being used for political purposes and therefore subject to re-examination as to tax exemption, it is only because the Ford Foundation has avoided explaining to the public that a $15,000,000 error was made.

Meanwhile the Fund for the Republic has been antagonistic to all Congressional investigations and investigators, has teams all over the country ostensibly investigating the communists but actually seeking to discover what active anti-communists have been doing. A very complex questionnaire has been sent to firms using radio and television programs to advertise their wares, asking in the minutest detail what their policies are concerning the employment of communists or alleged communists on radio and television.

In a letter addressed to such firms, the following questions are asked:

(1) Does your organization hold that certain political criteria should be met by artists whom you engage, i. e. would you disapprove of hiring an artist

(A) Named as a communist by a government agency?

(B) One who was an 'unfriendly witness' before a governmental investigating body?

(C) One who stood on the Fifth Amendment before such a body?

(D) One who has been listed in such private organs as 'Counterattack' 'Red Channels' 'Firing Line'?

(E) An artist who in the public mind, or at least before a goodly section of the public, is deemed 'controversial'?

(F) Any other category?

"(2) If such criteria are to be met, does your organization leave the application of them to the advertising agency and the network or do you take an active interest?"

"(3) Is it your experience that the employment of 'controversial' personalities hurts the sale of products?"

"(4) Are you satisfied with the way the question has been handled to date?"

The Fund for the Republic has also become engaged in the free distribution of books, pamphlets, newspaper articles, etc. One phase of political propaganda is the uninvited, unsolicited, unpaid for distribution of material on one side of a question with the object of influencing public opinion. The Fund has sent such material to clergymen, college presidents and federal judges, among others.

I have before me a list of such material as received by one person who has asked for none of it and resents being made its re-

ipient. As I have not read all of it, I cannot adequately comment on it, but one article widely distributed by the Fund for the Republic is "The Kept Witnesses," by Richard H. Rovere, with a subtitle that states:

"At least eighty-three people have been set up by the government in the trade of 'Professional Witnesses.' One calls it 'a racket' . . . three are confessed liars . . . and all of them are exempt from security clearance."

This article gives me the impression that the government of the United States, particularly the Department of Justice and the FBI, is engaged in a conspiracy to frame Americans by the use of false and paid witnesses. It is the most serious charge that can be made against a public official. It is deserving of a Congressional investigation, because if Rovere is correct, the security system is faulty and criminal in intent. Such an investigation could include the author of the article and the Fund for the Republic.

Raw Cabbage Juice Helps Heal Ulcers

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Six years of experience with raw cabbage juice as an ulcer treatment indicates that procedure should be tried on all such cases before resorting to surgery, says a Stanford University physician.

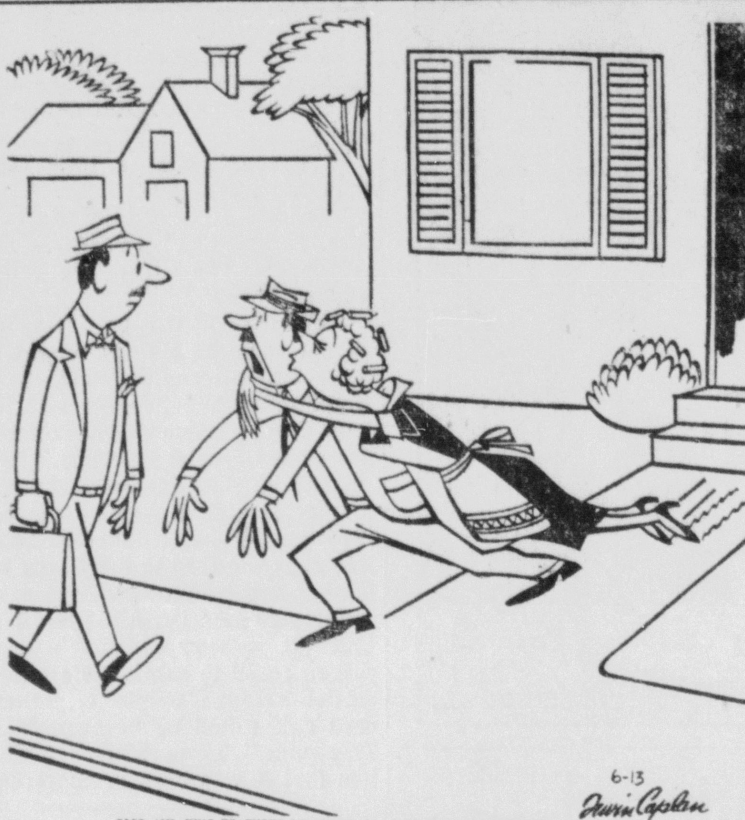

Three weeks on cabbage juice plus a bland diet healed most ulcers in a series of 63 cases, Dr. Garnett Cheney reported in the Stanford Medical Bulletin. Six patients with "huge" ulcers needed 56 days of treatment. Conventional treatment for ulcer with drugs usually requires six weeks or more, he added.

Only three of the 63 cases failed to show healing. Dr. Cheney said each of these had dense scar tissue in the stomach and liver damage. There were three others, not counted in the 63 cases, who had stomach cancer as well as ulcers. Their ulcers did not heal.

Raw cabbage juice is particularly rich in a substance which Dr. Cheney tentatively calls Vitamin U. It apparently helps the stomach lining to resist breakdown when under attack by natural stomach acids and other body chemicals. The substance also is present in leafy green vegetables, milk and eggs.

Treatment calls for drinking at least a quart of cabbage juice daily. Dr. Cheney obtained cabbage juice in concentrated form so that less bulk would be needed. The juice also was reduced to powder and put into capsules.

Baby's First Feat Learning To Smile

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN

When will my baby walk? When will he talk? When will he do this? When will he do that?

These questions, naturally, beset any new parent, but no doctor is able to predict the answers. Every baby is an individual, so there isn't much use comparing him to other children.

There are general age brackets, however, which indicate at what time a baby might be expected to do certain things. But what is probably more important than when he will do them is the sequence in which he will perform various acts.

First Sign

Generally, the first sign that a baby has gained some control over his muscles is when he lifts his chin while lying on his stomach. Sometimes this is accomplished within a few days after his birth. Next comes his first real smile, usually sometime between the age of three weeks and two months. He will probably smile upon hearing someone's voice.

Between one and a half to two months he will begin gurgling and cooing and making other sounds. Along about the same time he will begin turning his head at the sound of voices. When he is about two months he will be strong enough to lift his chest when lying on his stomach. His curiosity is becoming strong now.

Sometime between two and four months he will be able to hold his head up when you pull him into a sitting position. He will begin laughing out loud around the age of four months.

Between four and six months your tot should start reaching and grabbing for objects such as rattles and other toys. He will be able to roll all the way over between five and seven months. First, he will roll from his stomach to his back. It is a little more difficult for him to roll from his back to his stomach, but he will do that, too.

Begin Crawling

A really big accomplishment comes along about the age of six to eight months, when your baby will be able to sit up alone. By this time his back is strong enough to support him. In another month or so—between seven and nine months—he'll begin crawling. Around nine or ten months he'll pull himself into a standing position and in a very short time he'll start to walk.

While some babies can walk alone at the age of one year, most don't walk by themselves until they are about 14 or 15 months or even older. He'll probably begin talking a little about this time, too, although some babies talk long before they walk.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

F. S.: What are the symptoms of a brain tumor?

Answer: Symptoms of brain tumor depend upon the size and location of the tumor within the brain. Most symptoms of brain tumors consist of headaches, disturbance of the various sensations and sense organs, such as the eyes; at times attacks of vomiting may occur. If a tumor of the brain is suspected, immediate study by a neurologist is advisable.

Between one and a half to two months he will begin gurgling and cooing and making other sounds. Along about the same time he will begin turning his head at the sound of voices. When he is about two months he will be strong enough to lift his chest when lying on his stomach. His curiosity is becoming strong now.

The Nation Today

James Marlow

Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—Guaranteed wages and unemployment insurance are not the same. They are being pulled closer together by the auto workers' efforts to wring some kind of wage guarantee from the auto industry.

This is the main difference:

1. Unemployment insurance (hereafter called UI) is money which a state gives a worker—for a limited time and in limited amounts—when he loses his regular job.

2. The kind of guaranteed wage now in the news is money given by an employer—for a limited time and in limited amounts—when a worker is laid off.

This is what the CIO United Auto Workers had in mind when it got its first guaranteed wage contracts from Ford and General Motors.

That the guaranteed wage, when added to the UI which a laid-off worker would collect, would give him a figure closer to his regular pay than he would get from the UI alone.

Now it's up to the states to decide whether they'll give UI to a man collecting money from his employer. Some states don't permit that now.

Unemployment Insurance
All states, plus the District of Columbia, Alaska and Hawaii pay UI, collected through a tax of 3 per cent or less on employers' pay-rolls. Amounts vary from state to state and so does the length of time each state gives these benefits.

The UI payments have been averaging around $25 a week. Some states pay for no more than 16 weeks, some for as many as 26.

Before he can collect UI payments, a worker generally must meet requirements like these: almost all states require him to wait a week, without pay, before he starts collecting; he must be willing to take another job if it's suitable; he may be penalized, or get no money at all, if he's been fired for misconduct.

The Guaranteed Wage
It is of two kinds:

1. For years some companies—like Nunn-Bush, Hormel, Procter and Gamble—have had guaranteed wage plans assuring their employees steady work or income. This is not linked to unemployment insurance.

2. The Ford agreement, first for the auto industry, is tied directly in with UI payments. This is how it works:

A man is laid off for lack of work. He can get up to $25 a week—many will get less—for as much as 26 weeks. How much he gets, up to $25, and how long he gets it depends on how long he worked for Ford and how much he earned weekly.

This company payment, when added to the UI payment he gets from the state, can, but won't necessarily add up to 65 per cent of his base take-home pay. That is, the pay he has left after federal income tax has been deducted from it.

And that guarantee of 65 per cent of take-home pay is only for four weeks. For the next 22 weeks the guarantee is for no more than 60 per cent. So even the combined Ford-UI payment will not give a jobless worker what he had earned regularly.

Current Vietnamese Setup Is International Problem

EDITOR'S NOTE — The United States is gambling on the future of South Viet Nam. It is taking hand, directly or indirectly, in the way that strategic area is governed. What lies ahead? What are the chances of keeping communism out? How about Premier Diem? Preston Grover went to Saigon to seek answers to these and other questions. This is the first of five articles Grover has written to illuminate the background and appraise the prospects.

By PRESTON GROVER
SAIGON, SOUTH VIET NAM (P) — The French have lost out decisively in South Viet Nam but the task of getting them out of power gracefully has been handled so ineptly on all sides that it has become a major international problem.

Many French here recognize that they have lost out and sooner or later must turn over control fully to the Vietnamese.

The Vietnamese want the French out. The Vietnamese want to run their own country.

The Americans want the French out. Americans believe it will be easier to organize an anti-Communist defense when the French are gone.

Those are simple statements, but there the simplicity of the problem ends. National ambitions and sensibilities enter at this point to make the story both dramatic and dangerous.

Civil war is still a bare possibility in this country. Perhaps more serious is that the French and Americans have got into such a squabble over how to lead the country to independence during the next 12 months that they are risking the very independence they are trying to save.

Moreover, their squabbling endangers their relations in Europe. France came first to this country with the light touch of selfless missionaries. A few of them landed on the south coast of Viet Nam called Cochinchina. That was just after the American Revolutionary War.

By 1885 the French had gained South, the final act being a brief skirmish with the Chinese to make them give up ancient claims.

Thus began the years of French influence in Indochina which have so colored their present outlook. Indochina was one of the richest prizes any nation got in the big empire rush. It poured its wealth into France and the French put skill, enterprise and civilization into Indochina. The current language of the intellectual classes here is French. The French built railroads, bridges, highways, and opened a vast network of canals which from the air look like white ribbons lying straight and clean through the jungle.

Frenchmen came here to live. They closed the market to other nations and sold their own goods here at high prices. It was real empires.

There was resistance but the French for long years could put it down. In vain the Vietnamese pleaded for freedom "within the French Union."

The French did not seem to realize that the era of colonialism had about ended in the Far East. Indonesia pulled loose from the Dutch. India and Burma were released by Britain. The Philippines, by an earlier agreement, received independence from America.

Still the French held on. There were reasons, and large ones. France was fighting to keep a place among the big powers after her defeat by Germany. She needed the wealth of Indochina, wanted to preserve a foothold in Asia.

The commercial angle still is important to France, but the world-power factor seems to influence her leaders most today. In Europe, the United States has paid out billions to help her in this struggle. But here, in recent months, the policy has changed radically and some of the local executors of American policy give little heed to such matters.

Rabbi Sees Beauty In Child's Death

CLEVELAND (P)—A rabbi who was there when 3-year-old Wendy Kushner died said "she looked like a beautiful withered flower."

"That child radiated beauty, even through all her suffering," said Rabbi David L. Genuth.

The little girl died of cancer Wednesday night. During her year-long illness, she received more than 50,000 cards and letters from people who had read about her.

Rabbi Genuth said he knew her suffering was not in vain; that "this is religion at its best."

She was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Milton H. Kushner.

Ticking Package Arouses Postman

CHICAGO (P)—A railroad mail clerk came across a package that not only ticked ominously, like maybe a time bomb, but also rang at intervals.

The clerk summoned a postoffice inspector. The inspector sent for the police bomb squad. The police took the package to a parking lot and carefully cut it open.

They found a battery-operated intercommunication system. They rewrapped the package and mailed it along to Jerry Nelson of Washington, who was expecting it from Morris J. Nelson of Ripon, Wis.

Replay Slated After Protest

SWO Hassle Solved; League Head Chosen

In a special meeting of all six SWO League managers Sunday evening, Milledgeville's protested 5-4 victory over Good Hope a week before was wiped from the record books.

At the same meeting, the managers elected Kenneth Craig president of the league.

The protested game was played June 5 at Milledgeville. With two out in the top of the seventh, Milledgeville's Charlie Hendricks knocked in what turned out to be the winning run.

But Good Hope objected that the ball had landed three feet foul. On hearing the evidence during the special protest meeting, the managers of the four SWO teams not involved agreed with Good Hope manager Tom Smalley. They voted unanimously that the game should be replayed from the point when Hendricks came to bat in the seventh.

The man who scored the protested run, Ray Hendricks, will be back on second. There will be two outs. The replay will take place next time the regular schedule takes Good Hope to Milledgeville.

FUTURE PROTESTS will fall in the province of the new league president, Kenneth Craig.

Craig, who is superintendent of the New Holland School, was elected by unanimous vote of the league's six managers to serve as president.

In addition to settling future hassles like the Milledgeville-Good Hope one, Craig will have the job of selecting players for an all-star game at the close of the season, as well as smoothing things out in general.

The league is now looking out for two more men to serve with Craig as a sort of board of arbitration to settle future protests.

The special meeting was held at the home of Good Hope Manager Tom Smalley.

SWO League Game Is Balked By Rain

The SWO League baseball game that was to have been played Sunday at Wilmington by the Washington C. H. team was postponed because of a wet diamond, threat of more rain and the chilly wind.

These two teams occupy unusual positions in the league. The Wilmington team was transplanted from Blanchester and the Washington C. H. team calls the Lions Club park at Bloomingburg its "home."

Date for the play-off of Sunday's postponed game has not been set.

Ex-G-Man Named Big Ten Prober

CHICAGO (AP)—A former FBI agent Saturday was appointed to serve as a part-time athletic investigator for the Big Ten.

Commissioner Tug Wilson said Jack Ryan of Milwaukee, a special FBI agent for more than six years, will serve as his special assistant.

Ryan, a Northwestern University halfback in 1937-38-39, has been a conference football official in recent years. He will discontinue the officiating with his new assignment.

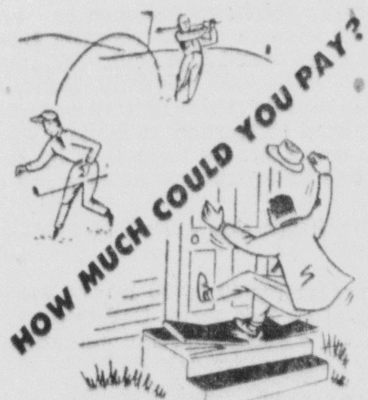

Wilson has had special investigators for several years to help in sifting reported violations of the Big Ten code.

Veteran Skipper Shows Honesty

COLUMBUS (AP)—A veteran Wood County skipper might have been the Comet Class winner of the Leatherslips Yacht Club's Dam Full Regatta, but his honesty dropped him into third place.

O. E. M. Keller of Rossford came in first in all three Comet events on nearby O'Shaughnessy Reservoir yesterday and Saturday. Officials didn't know Keller's boat had fouled by striking one of the buoys marking the limits of the six-mile course. Keller, who is in his 70s, advised officials of the foul after the race ended.

Golf's 19th Hole

Rainy and cold weather put a crimp in golfing at the Country Club here last week, but nearly everyone is finding a little time to sharpen up for the handicap tournament that is just now getting started.

The first matches of this tourney are to be played by June 24.

However, the nasty weather to the contrary notwithstanding, several golfers were out for the first time. Among them were Frank Baker (his friends say that's why it rained) Paul Pennington.

Seven Washington C. H. Golfers had a go at the Columbus district two-man best-ball tournament which was played at Groveport last week. They were:

The Women's Invitational Tournament is scheduled for the Chillicothe Country Club next Wednesday. That is the same day as the weekly Ladies Day at the club here, but what these will have on each other is conjectural. Indications now are that several of the Washington C. H. regulars will take in the event at Chillicothe.

A five-man best-ball tournament has been arranged for next Saturday and Sunday.

Hosts for Thursday's Men's Night party are Bud Schlue, Eugene McClain, Lowell Miller, Leo Edwards, Jim Grinstead and Clarence Christman.

Four of the best golfers of the club had birthdays last week: They were Dr. Robert Hagerty, Dan O'Brien, Wayne Shobe and Tony Capuana, the club pro. All of them shoot in the vicinity of par regularly.

THIS AND THAT from the pro's notebook:

Pvt. Bud Dawson played some golf when he was home on a short furlough.

The golfer with the bright red shirt is Bill Himmelsbach; it shines out brilliantly from any place on the court.

Charles Buxton had the best score of the week, a 2 under par 34.

Roger Grimm had his first-ever eagle when he sank a 30-foot putt on No. 4 green. It also gave him a 42 for his best-ever score.

Harold Miller is getting some of his back swing trouble corrected

Jeffersonville Wins From Good Hope, 3-1

A base on balls, an error and a couple of singles were good for three runs and that was enough to give Jeffersonville a 3 to 1 victory over Good Hope Sunday afternoon.

The victory not only left the Jeffersonville outfit perched up on top of the South Western Ohio (SWO) League standing all alone, but it also gave it sweet revenge for the only loss it has suffered this season.

Right after the start of the schedule, the Good Hope boys knocked off the Jeffersonvillians, 11 to 8. Since then, the Jeffersonville team has won every game; the Good Hope crew, however, has not been so fortunate.

Sunday's game, that was shifted from Good Hope to Jeffersonville because the Good Hope lot was a little more soggy, was one of the best on the circuit this season. The fielding was tight and fast and the pitching was effective, except in two innings.

All three of Jeffersonville's runs came in the third inning. It started when Dumford worked Bob Dawes for one of the four passes he issued.

Then Anderson was safe on an error. After Sharrett had popped out to third, Hildreth singled in Dumford and Anderson, Alkire grounded out, third to first, and Hildreth advanced on the play to get in position to score on Long's single.

The Good Hope boys got one run back in the sixth—and that was their only run and only real threat—when Gillette was safe on the only Jeffersonville error and came home on Bob Dawes' single.

Dumford pitched one of his best games, fanning 6 and giving up not that first base on balls. Dawes set down eight on strikes, but he gave four bases on balls.

Anderson and M. Smith got the only extra base hits—both were doubles.

Nashua vs. Swaps Match Is Proposed

INGLEWOOD, Calif. (AP)—Racing fans and the Hollywood race track management awaited word today from the East on an invitation for Nashua to run against California's Swaps in a $100,000 winner-take-all match duel here this summer.

The two, America's finest 3-year old thoroughbreds, propelled themselves into a possible match race two days ago when Nashua captured the $119,800 Belmont Stakes in New York by nine lengths.

Swaps won the rich Californian against older handicap stars and set a world record of 1:40 2-5 for a mile and one sixteenth doing it.

The California colt beat Nashua in the Kentucky Derby, the only time they have met.

A total of 2,740 saliva and urine tests were made last year on horses which ran at the three New Jersey race tracks.

Milledgeville Wins From Mt. Sterling

Milledgeville pushed Mt. Sterling's hapless ball club further into the cellar of the SWO League Sunday by handing it a 17 to 0 shellacking on the Milledgeville diamond.

Key to the lopsided victory was in the pitching of Milledgeville's Charlie Hendricks.

"We all hit him," said one frustrated Mt. Sterling player, "but he wouldn't ever let us get a solid piece of the ball. Most of the hits went dribbling across the infield or back to the pitcher."

Only two Mt. Sterling players hit safely.

Milledgeville piled up its 17 runs in three big innings, banging out four in the first, five in the second and eight in the sixth.

Losing pitcher was David Green who allowed 18 hits for the 17 runs.

Mt. Sterling has a record of a single win and six losses.

The Milledgeville club has a 3-3 record.

TODAY'S GARDEN-GRAPH

Reg. U. S. Patent Office

Marrows Worth Knowing Better

By DEAN HALLIDAY
Distributed by Central Press Association

VEGETABLE marrows are a most interesting, but different type of squash. In past years they were not grown as much in this country as they were in Europe, where they are rated along with peas and asparagus for their delicious flavor. They are now more popular in this country, and they are well worth knowing better.

There is both a summer and a winter type of marrow. The Italian marrow, Cocozelle Bush, illustrated in the accompanying Garden-Graph, is a summer variety, one of several strains. When mature the fruits vary from 18 inches in length to several feet, and from three to seven inches in diameter.

The Boston Marrow, shown in the Garden-Graph, is the earliest winter marrow. It looks like a smooth Hubbard squash, but has a light orange colored skin and deep orange colored flesh. It varies from six to nine pounds in weight. This marrow is known as the "basket pumpkin" and is excellent as a pie filling. In fact, people who know this fruit well use it more for pumpkin pies than true pumpkins.

Seeds of marrows can be planted now, in hills or in your corn patch as you would pumpkins. It is almost impossible to get the soil too rich for marrows.

Walter Hays Is Contest Winner

Judged Top Speaker In Ohio Conference

Walter Hays reigns today as the champion public speaker of the Ohio Conference of the Methodist Church.

Hays, the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hays of 901 East Temple Street, won the title Friday evening in a competition at Lakeside auditorium, where he spoke before a crowd estimated at more than 3,000.

Walter Hays

The contest Friday was the last round in a series planned to discover the top temperance speaker among young people in the Ohio Conference, which covers about three-fifths of the state. Hays had previously won similar contests in the Grace Methodist Church here, and the district and regional contests.

His prize was a gold medal and $100. His winning speech will be published in pamphlet form, and Hays had already been requested to deliver it in several places, including the King Avenue Methodist Church in Columbus and the youth rally of the Lima district of the Methodist Church.

HAY'S TOPIC was "Think—Do not Drink." Hays and the two youngsters competing against him—both winners of regional contests elsewhere in the state—had written their speeches themselves. Bringing together material from a variety of sources ranging from the Bible to auto accident statistics for 1954, Hays listed three reasons why American youth should "think—not drink."

He quoted medical authorities who find the use of alcohol "physically injurious." He said alcohol contributes to juvenile delinquency and other moral breakdowns. Finally, he said the Bible and the tenets of Christian faith prohibit drinking.

Judges in the contest were Rev. John Knight of Trinity Methodist Church in Columbus and former president of Baldwin Wallace College in Berea and former president of Nebraska Wesleyan; Rev. Clare Ingham, Conference youth director with his office in Columbus, and Rev. S. R. Dunham, retired preacher.

Hays will be a student at Wilmington College next year.

Belmont Position Taken by Mrs. Bush

Mrs. Billie Bush, who had been the secretary to Glen Allen, the manager of the Chamber of Commerce here, for the last year, today was packing up to leave Friday for St. Clairsville where she will be the executive-secretary of the Belmont County Tuberculosis and Health Association.

The association there, Mrs. Bush said, is organized and run on the same pattern as the Fayette County association. Her office will be in the Belmont Sanatorium, which is similar to Mt. Logan Sanatorium that serves the district including Fayette County.

Mrs. Bush said she would get a course of on-the-job training to acquaint her with certain specific phases of her work but, she added, her business experience provided a valuable background. She has held positions in the Barnhart Oil Co. office and the Singer Sewing Center here.

She was first interviewed for a position with a county TB and Health Association (not the one at St. Clairsville) about six weeks ago, she said. Since then she said she had 11 more interviews, plus mail correspondence.

Mrs. Bush's place with the Chamber of Commerce has been taken by Miss Darlene Thornton, a 1955 graduate of Washington C. H. High School. Manager Allen said Miss Thornton was there on a part-time basis.
